

Q and the Millennial Kingdom Part 1

Dark to Light and Q - Freemasonry Psyop or Something Else?

by John Q Adams

March 30, 2022

Dark to Light. This is a line Q uses at least 30 times in their drops. In Freemasonry darkness is a symbol of ignorance, while light is a symbol of enlightenment and knowledge. It is a principle of Freemasonry that the natural eye cannot perceive of the mysteries of the Order until the heart has embraced the deep spiritual and mystic meanings of those sublime mysteries. Hence all applicants for the Degrees of Freemasonry are required to enter the Lodge in total darkness, this darkness is preparatory and preliminary to his receiving the light he desires and searches.

"See, Q is a Freemason psyop!" you might exclaim. Not so fast. I did say Q used the phrase at least 30 times but I did not say 33 times. And to answer the question, no, it was not used 33 times. Let's check the context of Dark to Light as used by Q, shall we? When we do, we find that Q uses Dark to Light in the context of crimes being exposed/judgement and/or in the context of salvation. Coincidentally we can find correlating Scripture passages that have a connection with a given Q post where the Dark to Light phrase is used. Furthermore, within that passage of Scripture, we can draw a connection to the number 17. If you are new to Q, you may need to be reminded that Q is the 17th letter of the alphabet. Therefore, in simple Gematria, Q=17 or 17=Q.

Let's start at the beginning. Literally. In Genesis 1 starting in verse 2 we see an obvious connection to the phrase Dark to Light.

2The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. 3And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. 4And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness. 5God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

Genesis 1:2-5

You might have notice I bolded the chapter and verse numbers. Why? Here is our first 17. Chapter 1 + verses 2-5 = 1 and 2+5 = 1 and 7. Combine 1 and 7 and you get 17.

“That’s cheating!” you protest. Well, I do not concede, but I will up the ante then. Let’s scroll on down to verse 17.

And God set them in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth

Genesis 1:17

Even the most avowed baller (if you know you know) recognizes that the sun and the moon give light on the earth. “Yeah but the light in verses 2-5 is not the same as the light in verse 17 because the sun was not created until verse 16. Ha, I have you!” Okay, let’s go with that. If the light in chapter 1 verses 2-5, ::cough, cough, 17, cough, cough::, are not talking about the sunlight, then what light is it talking about? Perhaps the light of the world?

2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

John 1:2-5

Did you miss it? I did it again. John 1:2-5. There it is, another 17.

I can see you are starting to roll your eyes now. I will give you that. They are not obvious 17’s. Whether you like the connection I have made or not, the fact is I have shown thus far that there is a connection between Dark to Light and 17 in Scripture. But I did not say I was done. Continuing.

Most “Christian” (I say that in quotes because if you know you know) scholars agree that the light in the beginning of Genesis and the Word in the beginning of John are one and the same. This light, the light of the world, shines in the darkness. Dark to Light.

This light is also truth.

Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

John 14:16

So, the Truth is the Light of the world which shines into the darkness. Matthew 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light. He is also the Word (John 1:1) In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God. He is also salvation. We saw that above in John 14:16. But let's use another passage. How about we see who his disciples say he is.

And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter replied, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Matthew 16:13-16

And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven.

Matthew 16:17

17 links to The Word, The Light, The Truth and Salvation. The one who sanctifies.

Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth.

John 17:17

The Truth shines on the world.

Q

Now let's look at how Dark to Light relates to evil things done in secret being revealed, made known/judgement. We will also sprinkle in some salvation references because why not. The Q plan is the plan to save the world after all.

For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

Q

Continuing with the theme of Dark to Light, evil things done in secret being revealed, made known. Dark to Light in Simple Gematria = 125. One could divvy up the numbers here to where we have a 12 and a 5 which would equal 17. We also see a 125 connection in the following verse.

For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret.

Ephesians 5:12 (5+12=17)

Q

Now here is an example of how Dark to Light as referenced by Q ties in with the theme of judgement and salvation in the Bible and the number 17.

Esther is the 17th book of the Bible. In Esther, Haman conspires to kill Mordecai and to wipe out Mordecai's entire race. But Haman's plan boomerangs on him. He ends up being hung on his own gallows, but not before he tricks the king into issuing an edict that declares that the Jews can be hunted down and slaughtered on a given day. The law of the land held that no document written in the king's name can be revoked. What was to be done? Was this the end of the Jewish people?

The solution was to issue another edict granting the Jews in every city the right to assemble and protect themselves; to destroy, kill and annihilate the armed men of any nationality or province who might attack them and their women and children and to plunder the property of their enemies. Judgement came to Haman and now would come to anyone who attacked the Jews. The hunters become the HUNTED and in doing so, are saved.

*In every province and in every city to which the edict of the king came, there was joy and gladness among the Jews, with feasting and celebrating. And many people of other nationalities became Jews because fear of the Jews had seized them.

Esther 8:17

Hunters become the HUNTED.

This is not another 4-year election.

Q

In Daniel we read about Shadrack, Meshack, and Abednego, 3 Israelites who refused to bow down and worship the king. Refusal to do so would mean they would be thrown into a fiery furnace. These orders came from the highest office in the land. The three men, however, were confident that salvation would come from YHWH.

If that is the case, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king.

Daniel 3:17

DARK TO LIGHT.

The orders came from the highest office in the land.

Q

In Joshua Chapter 1, YHWH tells Joshua to be strong and courageous as he is about to take command after Moses' death.

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua 1:9

Joshua then assembles his officers and lets them know they are on the verge of kicking off the military campaign that will take the Promised Land. It is time to gear up. In verse 17, the people pledge to follow Joshua.

16 And they answered Joshua, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. 17 Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you. Only may the Lord your God be with you, as he was with Moses! 18 Whoever rebels against your commandment and disobeys your words, whatever you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and courageous."

Joshua 1:16-18

1+1+6+1+8=17

Their response suggests they have a choice. They can choose to follow Joshua into the promised land, trusting that YHWH will bring them victory over their enemies, or they can choose to stay where they have been for the last 40 years.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, —That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security."
