

The Apocalypse of Tsephanyahu

Edited by Noel Joshua Hadley

The scene in the fifth heaven.

And a spirit took me and brought me up into the fifth heaven. And I saw angels who are called “adonai.” And the diadem was set upon them in the Ruach HaQodesh, and the throne of each of them was sevenfold more brilliant than the light of the rising sun. And they were dwelling in the temples of salvation and singing hymns to the ineffable Elohiym.

Sahidic fragment

The seer's vision of a soul in torment.

¹I saw a soul which five thousand angels punished and guarded. ²They took it to the East and they brought it to the West. They beat its ... they gave it a hundred ... lashes for each one daily. ³I was afraid and I cast myself upon my face so that my joints dissolved. ⁴The angel helped me. He said unto me, "Be strong, O one who will triumph, and prevail so that thou wilt triumph over the accuser, and thou wilt come up from Hades." ⁵And after I arose, I said, "Who is this whom they are punishing?" ⁶He said unto me, "This is a soul which was found in its lawlessness." And before it attained to repenting it was visited and taken out of its body. ⁷Truly, I, Tsephanyahu, saw these things in my vision.

The scene in a broad place.

⁸And the angel of Yahuah went with me. I saw a great broad place; thousands upon thousands surrounded it on its left side and myriads of myriads on its right side. The form of each one was different. ⁹Their hair was loose like that belonging to women. Their teeth were like the teeth of ...

Fragment dealing with burial.

1 ... dead. We will bury him like any man. ²Whenever he dies, we will carry him out playing the cithera before him and chanting psalms and odes over his body.

Scenes from above the seer's city.

2 Now I went with the angel of Yahuah, and he took me up over all my city. There was nothing before my eyes. ²Then I saw two men walking together on one road. I watched them as they talked. ³And, moreover, I also saw two women grinding together at a mill. And I watched them as they talked. ⁴And I also saw two upon a bed, each one of them acting for their (mutual) ... upon a bed. ⁵And I saw the whole inhabited world hanging like a drop of water which is suspended from a bucket when it comes up from a well. ⁶I said unto the angel of Yahuah. "Then does not darkness or night exist in this place?" ⁷He said unto me, "No, because darkness exists not in that place where the righteous and the saints are, but rather they always exist in the light."

⁸And I saw all the souls of men as they existed in punishment. ⁹And I cried out to Yahuah Almighty, "O Elohiym, if Thou remain with the saints, Thou certainly hast compassion on behalf of the world and the souls which are in this punishment."

Recording angels from Mount Seir.

3 The angel of Yahuah said unto me, "Come, let me show thee the place of righteousness." ²And he took me up upon Mount Seir and he showed me three men, as two angels walked with them rejoicing and exulting over them. ³I said to the angel, "Of what sort are these?" ⁴He said to me, "These are the three sons of Yowtham, the priest, who neither kept the commandment of their father nor observed the ordinances of Yahuah."

⁵Then I saw two other angels weeping over the three sons of Yowtham, the priest. ⁶I said, "O angel, who are these?" He said, "These are the angels of Yahuah Almighty. They write down all the good deeds of the righteous upon their scrolls as they watch at the gate of heaven." ⁷And I take them from their hands and bring them up before Yahuah Almighty; He writes their name in the Book of the Living. ⁸Also the angels of the accuser [HaSatan] who is upon the earth, they also write down all the sins of men upon their scrolls. ⁹They also sit at the gate of heaven. They tell the accuser, and he writes them upon his scroll so that he might accuse them when they come out of the world (and go) down there."

Ugly angels carry off the souls of unElohiymly men.

4 Then I walked with the angel of Yahuah. I looked before me, and I saw a place there. ²Thousands of thousands and myriads of myriads of angels entered through it. ³Their faces were like a leopard, their tusks being outside their mouth like wild boars. ⁴Their eyes were mixed with blood. Their hair was loose like the hair of women, and fiery scourges were in their hands. ⁵When I saw them, I was afraid. I said unto that angel who walked with me, “Of what sort are these?” ⁶He said unto me, “These are the servants of all creation who come to the souls of unElohiymly men and bring them and leave them in this place. ⁷They spend three days going around with them in the air before they bring them and cast them into their eternal punishment.”

⁸I said, “I beseech thee, O Adonai, give them not authority to come to me.” ⁹The angel said, “Fear not. I will not permit them to come to thee because thou art pure before Yahuah. I will not permit them to come to thee because Yahuah Almighty sent me unto thee because thou are pure before him.” ¹⁰Then he beckoned to them, and they withdrew themselves and they ran from me.

The heavenly city.

5 But I went with the angel of Yahuah, and I looked in front of me and I saw gates. ²Then when I approached them, I discovered that they were bronze gates. ³The angel touched them and they opened before him. I entered with him and found its whole square like a beautiful city, and I walked in its midst. ⁴Then the angel of Yahuah transformed himself beside me in that place.

⁵Now I looked at them, and I discovered that they were bronze gates and bronze bolts and iron bars. ⁶Now my mouth was shut therein. I beheld the bronze gates in front of me as fire was being cast forth for about fifty stadia.

The accuser and the angel Eremiel in She'ol.

6 Again I turned back and walked, and I saw a great sea. ²But I thought that it was a sea of water. I discovered that it was entirely a sea of flame like a slime which casts forth much flame and whose waves burn sulfur and bitumen. ³They began to approach me.

⁴Then I thought that Yahuah Almighty had come to visit me. ⁵Then when I saw, I fell upon my face before him in order that I might worship him. ⁶I was very much afraid, and I entreated him that he might save me from this distress. ⁷I cried out, saying, “Eloe, Lord, Adonai, Sabaoth. I beseech Thee to save me from this distress because it hath befallen me.”

⁸In that same instant I stood up, and I saw a great angel before me. His hair was spread out like that of lionesses'. His teeth were outside his mouth like a bear. His hair was spread out like women's. His body was like the serpent's when he wished to swallow me. ⁹And when I saw him, I was afraid of him so that all the parts of my body were loosened, and I fell upon my face. ¹⁰I was unable to stand, and I prayed before Yahuah Almighty, "Thou wilt save me from this distress. Thou art the one who saved Yashar'el from the hand of Phar'oh, the king of Mitsriym. Thou saved Shushanah from the hand of the elders of injustice. Thou saved the three holy men, Shadrak, Meyshak, Aved Nego, from the furnace of burning fire. I beg you to save me from this distress."

¹¹Then I arose and stood, and I saw a great angel standing before me with his face shining like the rays of the sun in its glory since his face is like that which is perfected in its glory. ¹²And he was girded as if a golden girdle were upon his breast. His feet were like bronze which is melted in a fire. ¹³And when I saw him, I rejoiced, for I thought that Yahuah Almighty had come to visit me. ¹⁴I fell upon my face, and I worshiped him. ¹⁵He said to me, "Take heed. Worship me not. I am not Yahuah Almighty, but am the great angel, Eremiel, who is over the abyss and She'ol, the one in which all of the souls are imprisoned from the end of the Flood, which came upon the earth, until this day."

¹⁶Then I inquired of the angel, "What is the place to which I have come?" He said to me, "It is She'ol." ¹⁷Then I asked him, "Who is the great angel who stands thus, whom I saw?" He said, "This is the one who accuses men in the presence of Yahuah."

The two scrolls.

⁷Then I looked, and I saw him with a scroll in his hand. He began to unroll it. ²Now after he had spread it out, I read it in my own language. I found that all my sins which I had done were written in it, those which I had done from my youth until this day. ³They were all written upon that scroll of mine without there being a false word in them. ⁴If I did not go to visit a sick man or a widow, I found it written down as a shortcoming upon my manuscript. ⁵If I did not visit an orphan; it was found written down as a shortcoming on my scroll. ⁶A day on which I did not fast or pray in the time of prayer I found written down as a failing upon my scroll. ⁷And a day when I did not turn to the sons of Yashar'el — since it is a shortcoming — I found written down upon my scroll ⁸so that I threw myself upon my face and prayed before Yahuah Almighty, “May thy mercy reach me and may thou wipe out my scroll because Thy mercy hath come to be in every place and hath filled every place.”

¹⁰Again he brought another scroll which was written by hand. ¹¹He began to unroll it, and I read it, and found it written in my (own) language ...

Leaving She’ol.

(Note: There are two pages missing. In the missing pages the author probably discussed the content of the second scroll, which should have recorded the good deeds of the seer. If the missing material is parallel to the preceding section, the reading of the scroll would be followed by a prayer — possibly a prayer of thanksgiving — and a pronouncement of triumph by a great angel. That would be followed by preparations for crossing over the river in a journey out of Hades. The section that follows begins after the arrival of a boat.)

8 ... They helped me and set me on that boat. ²Thousands upon thousands and myriads of myriads of angels gave praise before me. ³I myself put on an angelic garment. I saw all of those angels praying. ⁴I myself prayed together with them. ⁵I knew their language, which they spoke with me. ⁶Now, moreover, my sons, this is the trial because it is necessary that the good and the evil be weighed in a balance.

The 1st trumpet: triumph & visitation of the righteous.

9 Then a great angel came forth having a golden trumpet in his hand, and he blew it three times over my head, saying, “Be courageous! O one who hath triumphed. Prevail! O one who hath prevailed. For thou hast triumphed over the accuser, and thou hast escaped from the abyss and She’ol. ²Thou wilt now cross over the crossing place. For thy name is written in the Book of the Living.”³ I wanted to embrace him, but I was unable to embrace the great angel because his glory is great.

⁴Then he ran to all the righteous ones, namely, Avraham and Yitschaq and Ya’aqov and Chanok and Eliyahu and David.⁵ He spoke with them as friend to friend speaking one with another.

A 2nd trumpet: opening of heaven & souls in torment.

10 Then the great angel came to me with the golden trumpet in his hand, and he blew it up unto heaven.² Heaven opened from the place where the sun rises to where it sets, from the north to the south.³ I saw the sea which I had seen at the bottom of She’ol. Its waves came up to the clouds.⁴ I saw all the souls sinking in it. I saw some whose hands were bound to their neck, with their hands and feet being fettered.⁵ I said, “Who are these?” He said unto me, “These are the ones who were bribed, and they were given gold and silver until the souls of men were led astray.”⁶ And I saw others covered with mats of fire.⁷ I said, “Who are these?” He said unto me, “These are the ones who give money at interest, and they receive interest for interest.”⁸ And I also saw some blind ones crying out. And I was amazed when I saw all these works of Elohiym.⁹ I said, “Who are these?” He said unto me, “These are catechumens who heard the word of Elohiym, but they were not perfected in the work which they heard.”¹⁰ And I said unto him, “Then have they not repentance here?” He said, “Yes.”¹¹ I said, “How long?” He said unto me, “Until the day when Yahuah will judge.”¹² And I saw others with their hair on them.¹³ I said, “Then there is hair and body in this place?”¹⁴ He said, “Yes, Yahuah gives body and hair to them as he desires.”

The intercession of the saints for those in torment.

11 And I also saw multitudes. He brought them forth.² As they looked at all of the torments they called out, praying before Yahuah Almighty, saying, “We pray unto Thee on account of those who are in all these torments so that Thou might have mercy on all of them.”³ And when I saw them, I said to the angel who spoke with me, “Who are these?”⁴ He said, “These who beseech Yahuah are Avraham and Yitschaq and Ya’aqov.”⁵ Then at a certain hour daily they come forth with the great angel. He sounds a trumpet up unto heaven and another sounds upon the earth. ⁶All the righteous hear the sound. They come running, praying to Yahuah Almighty daily on behalf of these who are in all these torments.”

Another trumpet: the coming wrath of Elohiym.

12 And again the great angel cometh forth with the golden trumpet in his hand blowing over the earth. ²They hear it from the place of the sunrise to the place of the sunset and from the southern regions to the northern regions. ³And again he blows it up unto heaven and its sound is heard. ⁴I said, “O Adonai, why left thou me not until I saw them all?” ⁵He said unto me, “I have not authority to show them unto thee until Yahuah Almighty rises up in his wrath to destroy the earth and the heavens. ⁶They will see and be disturbed, and they will all cry out, saying, ‘All flesh which is ascribed to Thee we will give unto Thee on the day of Yahuah.’ ⁷Who will stand in His presence when He rises in His wrath to destroy the earth and the heavens? ⁸Every tree which grows upon the earth will be plucked up with its roots and fall down. And every high tower and the birds which fly will fall...”
