An Unexpected Rabbit Hole - The Ark of the Covenant and Q

by John Q Adams

We are in a theater, a play, where evil can be seen for what it is, but God is also seen in His grace and magnificence. ~ Juan O'Savin

It is time for the 9th article in this series. "About time!" you might exclaim. While I will concede that it has been a while, 11 months to be exact, I will not concede that it is late. After all, I am a Calvinist, and a Calvinist is never late, nor is he early. He arrives precisely when he is predestined to.

So here I am, writing this article at exactly the time I was predestined to do so by the one who lives outside of space and time, the sovereign Most High Elohim, ruler over all things. The beginning and the end, the first and the last.

YHWH is a master storyteller. He knows not only how to accomplish His purposes, but He will also accomplish them. And in doing so, He is weaving an incredible story with all the twists and turns, foreshadowing, drama, romance, suspense, and action you would expect to find in a story for the ages. If you pay attention, you will notice He is leaving easter eggs, for the lack of a better term, in every nook and cranny for us to find. I recently discovered one of these easter eggs in a rather unexpected rabbit hole.

I guess most rabbit holes are unexpected, or at least by now I should expect them to be. Which begs the question: if rabbit holes are usually unexpected, thereby leading you to expect unexpected rabbit holes to materialize, are they in fact unexpected? But that is a rabbit hole, although be it an unexpected one, best left to further exploration for another time.

*My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?
O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer,
and by night, but I find no rest.
Yet you are holy,
enthroned on the praises of Israel.
In you our fathers trusted;
they trusted, and you delivered them.
To you they cried and were rescued;
in you they trusted and were not put to shame.
But I am a worm and not a man,
scorned by mankind and despised by the people.*
~Psalm 22:1-6

Psalm 22:1-6 is an example of foreshadowing that YHWH weaves into His-Story. Most of you are probably familiar with verse one being an exact phrase spoken by Yahusha on the cross. For those standing there that day, Mashiach's words would have evoked the Psalmist's words in their minds. Perhaps they would have remembered the promise found in the closing verses of the same Psalm, speaking to His sovereignty and plan of redemption.

*All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, and all the families of the nations shall worship before you.
For kingship belongs to the Lord,
and he rules over the nations.*
~Psalm 22:27-28

Verse one of the 22nd Psalm is an obvious foreshadowing of Yahusha on the cross. But a very subtle easter egg, or perhaps a better word is remez, which in Jewish hermeneutics is a hidden message or a deeper meaning, something like a treasure, is found in verse 6.

*But I am a worm and not a man,
scorned by mankind and despised by the people.*

What does it mean when it says, "I am but a worm and not a man"? Yahusha was certainly a man when He hung on the cross. It is notable that this statement is made in verse 6, which is the number of man. The common Hebrew word for "worm" is "rimmah," and it is defined as a maggot or a worm. However, in Psalm 22:6, the word for "worm" is "towla" or "tola'ath".

The Hebrew word "towla" or "tola'ath" is used 43 (4 + 3 = 7, which symbolizes completeness and perfection) times in the Old Testament — mostly as a color but sometimes in reference to man (eg. Job 25:6, Isa 31:14, 66:24).

Strong's Dictionary defines this word as "a maggot (as voracious); the crimson-grub but used only (in this connection) of the color from it, and cloths dyed therewith: –crimson, scarlet, worm."

So, the word "tola'ath" or "towla" in Psalm 22:6 denotes not only a worm but also identifies it as a crimson or scarlet worm common to the Middle East and predominantly in Israel. It should be noted that the colors crimson and scarlet are very deep, blackish red, which is the color of blood. Its crimson or blood red dye is one of the dyes that was used to make the crimson red color of one of the coverings of the Tabernacle, YHWH's inhabitation on earth. And in this crimson worm, we find a hidden meaning of biblical significance.

The Crimson Worm (scientific name: coccus ilicis or kermes ilicis) looks more like a grub than a worm. In the lifecycle of this worm is where the remez is found. And it points to the work of Yahusha on the cross.

When the female crimson worm is ready to lay her eggs, which happens only once in her life, she climbs up a tree or fence and attaches herself to it. With her body attached to the wooden tree, a hard crimson shell forms. It is a shell so hard and so secured to the wood that it can only be removed by tearing apart the body, which would kill the worm.

The female worm lays her eggs under her body, under the protective shell. When the larvae hatch, they remain under the mother's protective shell so the baby worms can feed on the living body of the mother worm for three days. After three days, the mother worm dies, and her body excretes a crimson or scarlet dye that stains the wood to which she is attached and her baby worms. The baby worms remain crimson colored for their entire lives. Thereby, they are identified as crimson worms.

On day four, the tail of the mother worm pulls up into her head, forming a heart-shaped body that is no longer crimson but has turned into a snow-white wax that looks like a patch of wool on the tree or fence. It then begins to flake off and drop to the ground looking like snow.

Isaiah 1:18 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet [shaniy – root word of tola'ath], they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson [tola'ath], they shall be as wool.

That in and of itself should be enough to give you the goosies. But wait, there's more. If we spell out the chapter and verse numbers of Psalm 22:1-6 we get some interesting Simple Gematria results.

I would be remiss if I did not mention that when they crucified our Mashiach they erected three signs, each in a different language, Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. In the Greek it read IESVS NAZARENVS REX IVDÆORVM (Jesus Nazarene, Rex Iudaeorum or INRI), which in English translates to "Jesus the Nazarene, King of the Jews" (John 19:19). Of course, I should remind you that the Hebrew Q is the 19th letter of the Hebrew alphabet. Here we have John 19:19 or John Q:Q, telling us about these signs. Q&A

The first question I usually get is something along the lines of, "Isn't Gematria Satanic?" No. Gematria in and of itself is not Satanic. Gematria is simply a cypher, that assigns numerical values to alphabetical characters. How you use it is what matters. Do you live your life by the numbers, making decisions based on the numbers. Do you orchestrate things to try and make them line up with certain numerology? If so, you are probably going down a dark path. But if you simply recognize them when they come along, that is not practicing Gematria in the way that Satanists do. It is simply recognizing the little treasures that the Most High weaves into our daily lives to remind us that He is right there with us and to show us that He is a personal God.

Who created numbers? I think you and I would agree on who the creator of all things is, and we both know it isn't Satan. God created numbers. He created a universe that is ordered and mathematical in nature. We know that Satan cannot create; he can only counterfeit what YHWH creates. Since the Most High is the creator of all and is sovereign over all, we should not be surprised, shocked, or horrified by how numbers in His ordered and mathematical universe line up. Rather, we should be delighted when we notice it because it is the Divine Matrix revealing itself. It is a tangible reminder that He is right here with us, that He is in control, and that nothing can stop what is coming because He has ordained the beginning from the end. He is the first and the last.

Speaking of the first and the last, the Hebrew alphabet starts with the Aleph and ends with the Tav, the 22nd letter. It just so happens that the Tav in Paleo Hebrew forms the shape of an X or a cross. I just showed you how decoding the chapter and verse numbers of Psalm 22:16 we ended up with 202 in simple Gematria. And with the number 202, we tied it to multiple phrases which essentially gives us the complete story of redemption. With the rules of Gematria, we can remove the 0 from a number because 0 means nothing. So 202 becomes 22 and represents the last letter of the Hebrew alphabet which, in Paleo, is the shape of the cross or in modern Hebrew is the open door. It just so happens, that during the first Passover, when the Hebrews painted the blood of the lamb on the door posts and lintel, they were making the shape of the modern Tav.

What if I told you that if you combine the path of the total solar eclipse over America on 4/8/2024 with the path of the total solar eclipse 7 years prior on 8/21/2017 we have the shape of the Paleo Tav?

If we combine those two eclipses with the one that occurred on 10/14/2023, we end up with the shape of the Aleph.

The Aleph and the Tav. The first and the last. YHWH is placing His mark on America. Let's see if the Divine Matrix can reveal something further.

The dates of the three eclipses are 8/21/2017, 10/14/2023, and 4/8/2024. Let's look at those numbers, shall we?

$$\mathbf{8/21/2017: 8 + 2 + 1 + 2 + 1 + 7 = 21}$$

$$\mathbf{10/14/2023: 1 + 1 + 4 + 2 + 2 + 3 = 13}$$

$$\mathbf{4/8/2024: 4 + 8 + 2 + 2 + 4 = 20}$$

$$\mathbf{21 + 13 + 20 = 54}$$

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

5 and 4 = 9. Did I mention this is the 9th article of my series?

The "Arc" of the Covenant Takes Center Stage

It is now time to jump into the unexpected rabbit hole that prompted me to write this article in the first place. As I am writing this, I have not yet reached a conclusion to what this all means. But in a way, that is probably for the better. After all, if you are reading this, then you are probably a fellow researcher looking for good information, which sometimes is hard to come by in this 5th generation war we find ourselves in. So, my plan is to simply present my findings. The more I dig, the more I find. Who knows, maybe this will become a two-parter. If I can figure out what I think it means by the end of the rabbit hole, I will let you know. But if not, then it wasn't meant to be. Perhaps as you are reading this, something I present will be the missing dot that will connect the picture for you. If that is all that comes out of this, then I will be happy enough with the result.

In January 2024, chatter began emerging on various social media platforms after James O'Keefe posted a photo of him standing next to a "perfect replicant" of the "arc" of the covenant at Mar-A-Lago. While I was vaguely interested in this chatter, it wasn't really enough to pique my interest enough to pursue this mystery further. That is, until I discovered that the Ingersoll Lockwood website added a hidden link to another website which gave a story about the Ark of the Covenant having been discovered in 1982. I immediately sat up in my chair. If you have ever been down the Trump Time Travel rabbit hole, then you will recognize Ingersoll Lockwood as the author of a series of books that is one of the pieces of evidence that imply that Trump is a time traveler. One of those books is entitled, 1900, Or, The Last President. Coincidentally, "Last US President" = 202, but I am sure that is nothing. The Ingersoll Lockwood website, which straight out declares it has nothing to do with Qanon (which is true because there is no Qanon, there is Q and there are anons) has some telling numbers in their physical address and interesting links all throughout their site. I am not going to dive into that rabbit hole just yet. Time is short. I left the link so you can check it out on your own. We have places to go. Let's leave that one to the future.

Why did he use a "c" in spelling ark rather than a "k"? Why did he say "replicant" instead of "replica"? These are potential clues to the puzzle.

"Arc" = 22 in Simple Gematria. That is interesting considering all the 202 connections to Psalm 22:1-6 and Last US President which connects to time travel.

Ark of the Covenant = 178 in Simple Gematria while Arc of the Covenant = 170. Perhaps this is a nod to Q?

Replicant = 98. Of course, $9 + 8 = 17$ (Q). So, we have a second witness to the idea that this post is pointing us to Q.

James points out that it took 2,700 hours of labor and 6 pounds of gold. 6 pounds equals 96 ounces. $27 + 96 = 123$

Nothing is random.

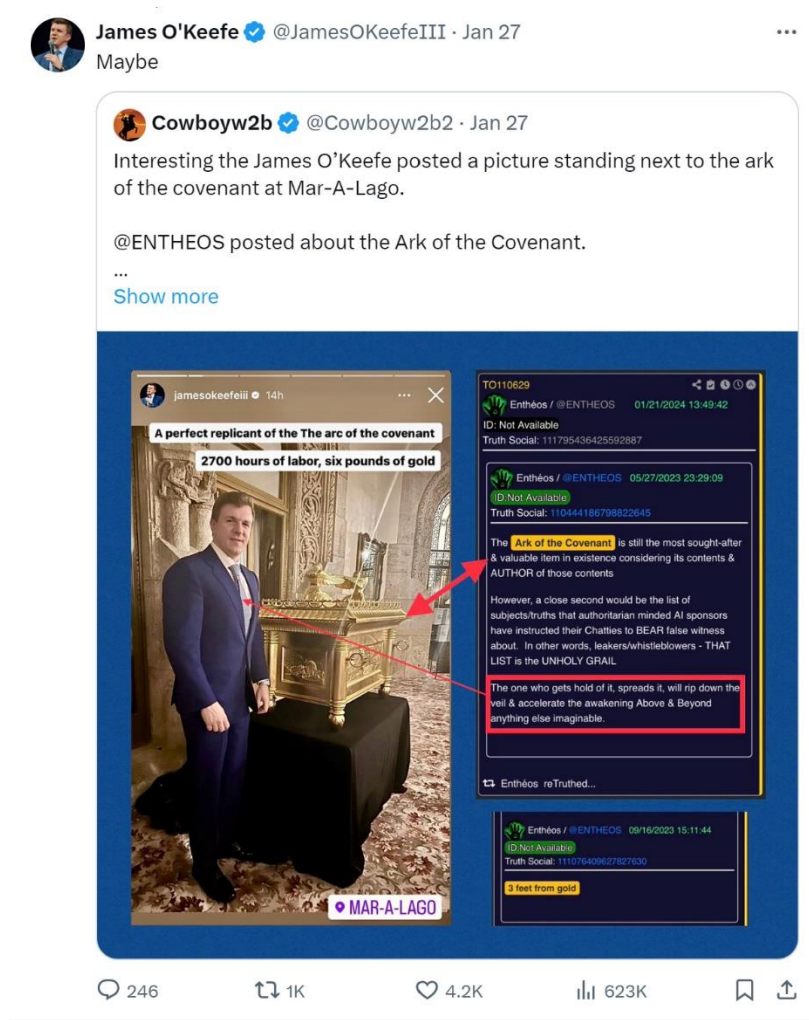

Everything has meaning.

Q

Well, that is certainly interesting. Let's keep going.

James helped to amplify the chatter by responding to a few select tweets about his Photo. He first responded to Cowboy2b2, who asked in this tweet, "did James get the list?" James responds with "Maybe".

James then responded to PatriotTakes, who asked why there is a gold replica of the Ark of the Covenant at Mar-a-Lago, with a thinking emoji.

People then began to speculate about whether it is actually a replica, spurred on by none other than George Magazine, the publication John F. Kennedy Jr. started in 1995. Following JFK Jr's reported death in 1999, George's last issue was in 2001 until new management, led by editor in chief Gene Ho, former official photographer for President Trump, started the publication back up in 2022.

Of course, as it always does in the Anon community, the memes began flowing.

 Brandie with a **

Trump has Noah's Ark in his yard at Mar A Lago to house all the meme warriors.

The same day that James O'Keefe repeatedly drew attention to the "Arc" of the Covenant, Trump in a campaign rally mentioned his uncle, electrical engineer, inventor, and physicist, John G. Trump. It just so happens, that in early 1943 ($1 + 9 + 4 + 3 = 17$), two days after the death of Nikola Tesla, the Federal Bureau of Investigation ordered the Office of Alien Property Custodian to seize Tesla's belongings. John Trump was called in to analyze the Tesla artifacts, which were being held in government custody. After a three-day investigation, Trump's report concluded that there was nothing which would constitute a hazard in unfriendly hands.

Whatever happened to the Ark of the Covenant anyway? That is a question that has fascinated theologians, Bible students, and archeologists for centuries. In the 18th year of his reign, King Josiah of Judah ordered the caretakers of the Ark of the Covenant to return it to the temple in Jerusalem (2 Chronicles 35:1-6; 2 Kings 23:21-23). That is the last time the ark's location is mentioned in the Scriptures. Forty years later, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon captured Jerusalem and raided the temple. Less than ten years after that, he returned, took what was left in the temple, and then burnt it and the city to the ground. So what happened to the ark? Was it taken by Nebuchadnezzar? Was it destroyed with the city?

The chances it was destroyed are slim to none. This is because the conquering armies of King Nebuchadnezzar brought back all kinds of treasures. That's what conquering armies do; they take treasure, they don't destroy it. What they took was documented quite thoroughly. In 2 Kings 24:13, 2Kings 25:13-18, and Jeremiah 52:17-23, a very detailed account was given of the items taken to Babylon from the "king's house" and the "house of the Lord" – it even mentioned small items like "spoons", etc. But the Ark isn't mentioned.

Neither is it mentioned in the lists of things brought back from Babylon in Ezra 1:7-1:11. Since we are told in Jeremiah 28:3 that everything taken to Babylon from the "house of the Lord" would be returned, and since the Ark wasn't among the returned items, this proves that it was never taken to Babylon. So, if it wasn't destroyed, and it wasn't taken, then what happened to it?

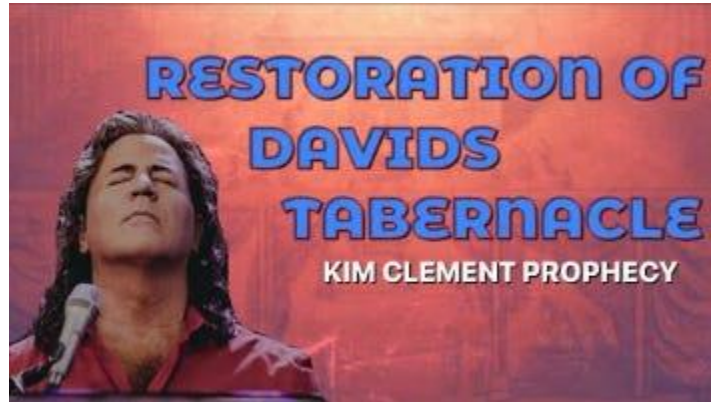

Revelation 11:19 mentions the ark as being in heaven: "Then God's temple in heaven was opened, and within his temple was seen the ark of his covenant. And there came flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake and a severe hailstorm." This verse has led some to speculate that the ark was taken up to heaven to be preserved there. But the ark that John sees in his vision of heaven is probably not the same ark that Moses constructed. We know that the articles in the tabernacle were "copies of the heavenly things" (Hebrews 9:23) and that the sanctuary itself was but "a copy and shadow of what is in heaven" (Hebrews 8:5).

2 Maccabees gives us an answer. It reports that just prior to the Babylonian invasion, Jeremiah, "following a divine revelation, ordered that the tabernacle and the ark should accompany him and...he went off to the mountain which Moses climbed to see God's inheritance [i.e., Mt. Nebo; cf. Deuteronomy 34:1]. When Jeremiah arrived there, he found a room in a cave in which he put the tent, the ark, and the altar of incense; then he blocked up the entrance" (2:4-5). However, "Some of those who followed him came up intending to mark the path, but they could not find it. When Jeremiah heard of this, he reproved them: 'The place is to remain unknown until God gathers his people together again and shows them mercy. Then the Lord will disclose these things, and the glory of the Lord will be seen in the cloud, just as it appeared in the time of Moses and when Solomon prayed that the Temple might be gloriously sanctified'" (2:6-8).

Well, there you have it. The Ark of the Covenant was hidden by Jeremiah either during or immediately prior to the Babylonian siege of Jerusalem. And it has remained there ever since, undiscovered. Or has it? Different people have claimed to have discovered the Ark of the Covenant. A Jewish rabbi claims to have discovered it under the Temple Mount. A monk of Aksum claims to have discovered it in a tiny little chapel in Ethiopia where there is a group of monks who claim they have the Ark of the Covenant but won't let anyone see it. There is yet another who testifies to have discovered it directly beneath the crucifixion site.

The Ark of the Covenant - A Prophecy

Kim Clement Prophecy - Restoration of David's Tabernacle | Prophetic Rewind

In Part 2, I talked about Kim Clement's various prophecies that relate to Q and President Trump. It is only appropriate, now that we have a link between President Trump, aka Q+, and the Ark of the Covenant, that we take a look at this message from Kim Clement delivered on New Year's Day, 2010.

God said, "Listen to that drum-beat... it is the sound of WAR."

But you say, "We've had enough WAR."

God said, "We're talking about a Good fight, we're speaking about a WAR that I have initiated!" says the LORD, "it is a WAR of the spirit, it is the WAR of the world" God said, "it shall be in such a way that there will be those that will say,

'Look at the nations of the earth, they have cried for Revival in the Church but look what God is doing! The Tabernacle of David which has fallen down is being Restored again!'"

What does this mean?

"It means" God says, "whatever was in the Tabernacle of David when it fell down shall be Restored back to the earth, and they shall say, 'Is it possible that they have found the Ark of the Covenant?'" for God says, "it shall be that there will be signs of it, and many shall fight it and they shall say, 'This cannot be for it has fallen down!'" but God says, "what was in the Ark of the Covenant is about to be manifested throughout the earth—and on Israel's mountain tops" God says, "and California's mountain tops and the mountain tops of America and Europe" and God says, "even in the Middle-East" God says, "there shall be a Glorious Sound of the Trumpet of God as the LORD begins to sound His Voice!"

ARE YOU HEARING WHAT THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD SAYS?

“You hear that drum-beat” God says, “it is a drum-beat not of WAR only but a drum-beat of VICTORY!”

Yes!

God said, “It sounds like it’s one solitary person, but you know why? It sounds like one solitary person because a spirit of UNITY is coming upon the People, upon the warriors of God, it shall not come upon the religious; they shall ALWAYS fight, they shall ALWAYS demonstrate and they shall ALWAYS say, ‘This is not enough, it’s not good enough.’”

God said, “I’m going to take away cheap grace and give you back costly grace; I’m going to remove cheap grace and show you what costly grace is” said the LORD of Hosts, “a movement of grace where they will understand it is unmerited favor, and that’s what I’m going to give.”

Are you People ready for unmerited favor? Are my warriors prepared to shout and say, “I believe that this is the beginning of unmerited favor!”?

It shall be a favor that shall be so different, that people shall say, “This is not fair! This is not fair! Why did he get it and I didn’t get it? Why is it that God poured Himself upon that family and not ours?”

God said, “It is a Tribal movement, it is a Tribal thing; I will Restore the Tabernacle of David which has fallen” and God said, “there shall be an unusual and unique move of My Spirit where people will begin to do exploits in My Name, discoveries will be made in a way that you’ve never imagined—I will take the Households of Faith and I will UNITE them as they’ve never been UNITED before!”

Therefore, God says, “Begin to shout and rejoice for this is going to be a Year of Great Rejoicing!” says the LORD!”

There are several interesting things about this prophecy from Kim Clement. First, he mentions the Ark of the Covenant being discovered. Of course, when he gave this prophecy, there were several who had already claimed to have discovered it. More on this in a bit. But his prophecy really wasn't about the discovery, but about people talking about it, discussing, asking if it is real. Chatter on social media.

Another interesting thing about this prophecy is Kim does not talk about the Temple being rebuilt. Sorry Premillennialists, but it ain't gonna happen. The Temple being rebuilt and sacrifices being offered again would be an abomination. I don't think YHWH is going to allow it. He does say that the Tabernacle of David will be restored and that what was in the Ark of the Covenant will be shown to the world. I'll let you click on the link to the video I left above to learn more from Kim Clement on the difference between the Tabernacle of David and the Temple.

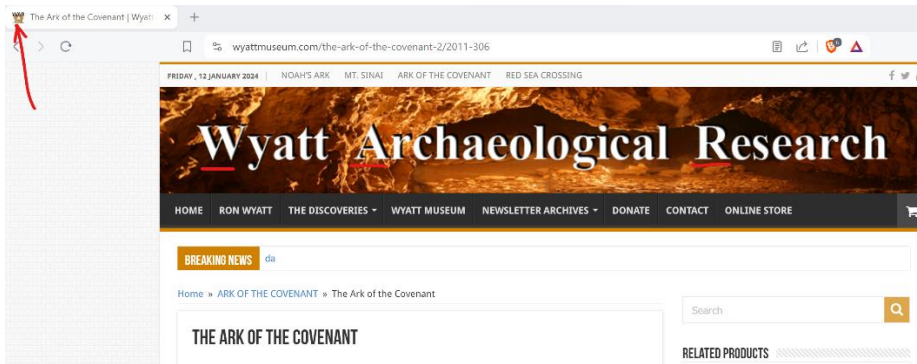

Finally, Kim mentions war, several times. In this Substack article, Christian American Patriot ponders if this could be a coded message.

This is astounding. Not only does Kim speak about the Ark of the Covenant and also “what was in the Ark of the Covenant”, but there appears to be a coded message within a specific word that was used here: WAR...

Try it yourself. Click on this link in the image below on the Ingersoll Lockwood home page.

This is starting to get good, no?

The Ark of the Covenant - A Testimony

Does the name Ron Wyatt ring a bell? It didn't for me either until recently, when I came across his name via the Ingersoll Lockwood website. His name should be a household name. After all, he claimed to have discovered the Ark of the Covenant in 1982. Here is his testimony compiled from several different interviews and presentations. To get the best effect, read in a slow southern drawl.

The reason I dug in that particular place was an unusual thing that happened to me. I was walking by there and I had, my sons and I had gone to Israel to get chariot parts out of the Red Sea. Due to my own ignorance and carelessness, I got sunburned so bad my feet and legs swelled up and I couldn't get in my diving gear. So, we were... in the middle of Jerusalem waiting for the date that was on our ticket. We had gotten one of those cheap tickets where you could only fly on the proper date.

I was walking along, and my left hand just went out from my body like that (pointing) and my mouth said, "That is Jeremiah's Grotto and the Ark of the Covenant is in there." Well, I didn't do that. It literally happened without my mental intent to do so. I knew that some supernatural power had used my arm and my voice, I wasn't sure which. So, I went back home and started checking to see why the Ark of the Covenant might be there. The research indicated that it quite likely would be there.

The Ark of the Covenant was most likely carried out of the temple and hidden in this chamber during the twenty-eight days between the time Zedekiah fled the city and when the Babylonian army came in (from their siege walls) and destroyed the city and the temple and palaces and all that. At that point in time, many people were probably being buried. I wasn't there, I don't know, but it would seem like that would be an opportunity to (hide the Ark of the Covenant).

Now if the priests just took the Ark of the Covenant and carried it out into a cave, the Babylonian army (who were manning their siege walls they had built around the city), would have gotten a glimpse of it. If the Jewish people in the city would have gotten a glimpse, then there would have been a real hubbub, if you know what I mean. So, it appears they put it in this thin wall stone box to make it appear that it was just another burial.

Now this took 11 trips and a period of about 3 years. We actually found the Ark of the Covenant on the January 6th, 1982, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. I was broke, $300 behind in my hotel bill, which an Arab gentlemen gave me $300 and he didn't even know I was broke. I broke into a chamber beneath the Calvary escarpment north of the city wall of Jerusalem. In that chamber is the Ark of the Covenant, the Table of Showbread, and several other things that I didn't see that were covered with animal skins, then boards, then stones.

Anyway, I was impressed to break right through the cliff, not this particular one, but one that looked every bit as solid. Well, I am dumb, but I did not think I was that dumb. So anyway, I kept looking around for a place to get in that cliff. I knew there were caves in there because honeybees were coming out of cracks and flying in, so they had their nests in there.

So anyway, my youngest son asked me if I had prayed about this. I said, "Yes."

He said, "Well, did you get any indication on what to do?"

I said, "Yes, I'm supposed to break right through that cliff."

He says, "Well, let's do it."

And I said, "No way! That's stupid! I'm not doing it!"

So, we worked for three or four more days, and it was time to leave the next day and my oldest son was down with me and we were handing to tools out to my youngest son to store them. My older son is a rather quiet person.

He said, "Dad, did you pray about this?"

I said, "Yes I did."

He said, "Well?"

I said, I was impressed to break through that cliff right there."

He said, "Well, let's do it!"

And I said, "No! That's stupid! I am not beating my brains out against that cliff!"

He said, "Well Dad, pardon my saying so, but I've seen you do stupider things than that."

I said, "Okay, tell Ronny to pass the tools back down."

Now if you look carefully, you will see a crack right here (pointing to a cliff face). It's not much of one, but it is a fault line through that stone. So, we went 18 inches over to this side and started with our chisels marking the stone up and down and up and down. Finally, a big chunk popped out of there. I pushed it off to the side, looked in towards the back at the bottom, there was a small dark hole about that big (holding up his fingers into the shape of a small hole). It did not look very promising at all. I had my son hand me the flashlight... this was all down in a tunnel... So, I put the flashlight up to the hole and there was a big cave chamber down in there. Have you ever had goosebumps and that sort of thing overwhelm you? Well, that's what happened to me.

It didn't take us very long to make the hole big enough to get in. I thought the Ark of the Covenant would be sitting right there. It wasn't. So, because we had to leave the next morning, we plugged the hole, went back up to the surface, plugged that hole and fixed it up so no one could tell where we had been, and left. I had to go home and work, save up some more money to come back.

But eventually I found the Ark of the Covenant. It was in a chamber that I would not have bothered going in, like I wouldn't have bothered breaking through the wall. My two sons had gotten very ill... and I sent one of them home Christmas Eve, one of them home New Year's Eve. I owed the hotel $300. I had no money at all.

The little Arab guy that was letting us eat at his restaurant, he was a full-grown man, but he was about that tall (indicating about 4' high), small and petite. As we went through this cave system, he would crawl into the chambers, and I would give him a light. He would shine it around and I would peek through to see if it looked like anything was in there. We did this over and over. We had been about 45 feet down and back up and around. Here this hole was in the wall, about that big around (indicates approximately 18 inches). There was a stalactite hanging right down through the middle of it. It was the only stalactite that I had seen in the caves that wasn't just little. This was a big one, and I have it in my collection.

So, I broke it off, made the hole big enough for him to get in. He was crawling in there and I started to hand him the light so we could do what we had been doing for several days. He came tearing out of there with his eyes about as big as human eyes can get and he said, "What's in there?! What's in there?! I'm not going back in there!"

I said, "What did you see?"

He said, "I didn't see anything."

And I thought, "Well... okay..." Now he had been in tighter places than that and had never responded that way. And I got this little beam of light in a dark place (pointing to his mind), and I thought, "That is divine terror."

So, I thought that is the place where the Ark of the Covenant is or it is the way to get to it, one or the other, and God doesn't want this feller to know to know where it is.

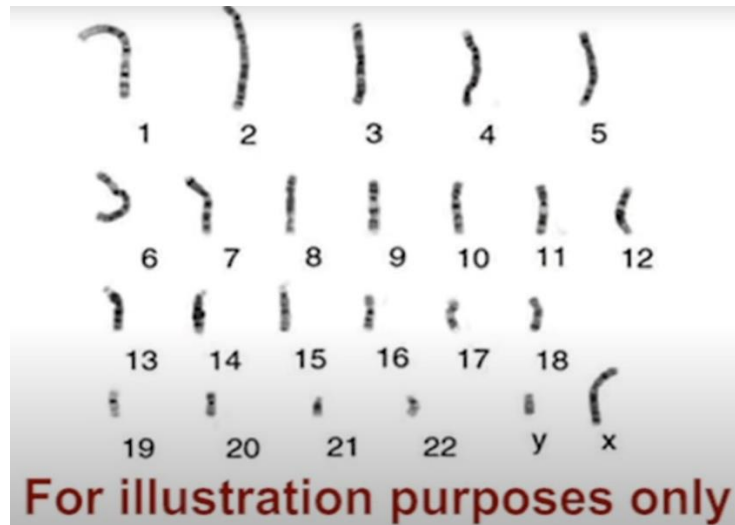

So anyway, he (the Arab) said, "I must get out of here!" So off he went. Well, I made the hole big enough for me to get in. I got in there and folks, it was full of rocks, up to within 18" or so of the ceiling. If this young man had not been terrorized and had come scootin' out of there like he did, I would not have gone into that place.

I crawled in there with the flashlight, and I shined the light down in there through the rocks and a flat gold thing reflected back at me. I started moving rocks and when I got down to it, it was the Table of Showbread. Well, that's not a bad thing, but I was looking for the Ark of the Covenant. It was only then that I took time to carefully examine the rest of the chamber. As I moved the flashlight along the wall, I saw a stone box sitting against the wall with about this much space between it and the ceiling (indicating a small less than one foot gap). The lid was broken, slid around, and right above it was a crack, with dark brown looking material on the bottom of this crack.

I was able to see the top of the broken lid to the box and on both sides was more of this brown stuff. All of a sudden, I realized that I was sitting in front of the Ark of the Covenant and that Christ's blood had come down onto it.

Now when I found the Ark of the Covenant, the lid on the stone box had been busted and one part of the lid had been slid around to the side. There was dried blood on both edges of that broken lid. And of course, later, when I had access to the Mercy Seat itself, there was large quantities of dried blood.

Normally crucifixions did not involve a whole lot of blood. However, it is stated that they wanted to make sure Christ was dead, so they stuck a spear in, and the blood and water gushed out. So, this was a bloody one. It is not ordinary blood. It has 24 chromosomes, only. All of us here have 46. Christ received 23 from His mother and one y sex determining factor from His Father who was not a human father. Because had He received that from a human father, there would have been 22 accompanying autosomes. Now what this basically means is that His height, His eye color, His hair color, and all this was supplied from the genes of His mother's gene pool. Mary and Joseph both descended from David. None of us have 24 chromosomes.

There is something else. The Bible says, "You will not leave my soul in hell nor allow my body to see corruption." The blood of Christ is only dried out folks, it's not dead. When we rehydrated it with normal saline, 72 hours at body temperature with slight, very gentle, swirling motion and put the white blood cells in a growth medium, 48 hours later we get a chromosome count. I had people who were experts at these sorts of things to do these things for me. They asked me, "Where did you get this blood? Whose blood is this?" This was in Israel. I said, "It's the blood of your Messiah." I never saw people go into such a state of shock and fits and everything else as those people went into. I said, "That's the blood of Jesus Christ."

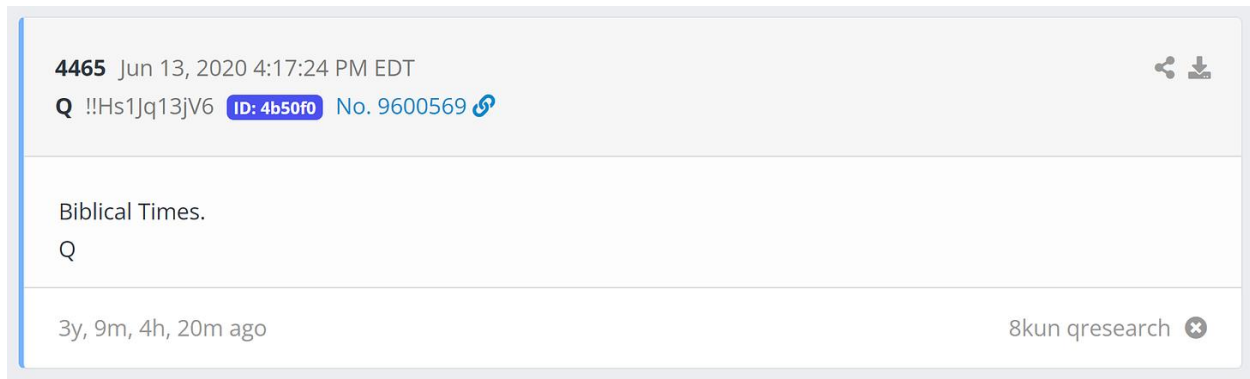

The chamber where I found the Ark of the Covenant has since been perfectly cleaned out. The Ark of the Covenant, the Table of Showbread, the Candlestick, the Golden Alter of Incense, they are all set out as they were in the Temple except the Ark of the Covenant is setting along the 12' wide and 18' high wall. The tables of stone were found in the Ark of the Covenant. I personally removed them with the assistance of four angels who lifted the Mercy Seat, which I estimate weighs about 900 pounds of solid gold. One of the angels told me to take the tables of stone out of there. He said, "God wants everyone to see those." So, I took them out, backed up, stood there, frozen in place. I just can't describe my physical state or mental state or anything else. You know I didn't have some physical evidence to prove it happened, I would think I had a dream or something. But anyway, they are now available to be shown. I will only say that they are on a stone ledge in that same chamber. That is where the angel put them when I handed them to him.

I was told these are to be presented with the blood evidence when the Mark of the Beast law is passed or enforced. Now, I know everybody wonders what it is, the Mark of the Beast, we hear all kinds of rumors and stories and all this. I'll tell you quick and simple. If you keep the 10 Commandments that God wrote on those tables of stone, and about which He says in Psalms 89:34, He says, "My Covenant I will not break, nor alter the thing that has gone out of my lips." He spoke the Ten Commandments from the mountain top and wrote them in stone and He says, "Nothing will change." If you keep that law, you will receive the seal of God. Soon there will be a set of man-made laws, best intentions, surrounded by a barrage of salubrious soliloquies and pole-girl solicitudes, instigated by the Devil to make you think that this thing is the best thing that ever happened to the human race and that you need to just go along with it voluntarily. These man-made laws will require that you break God's Ten Commandments. Christ said of the Pharisees, "for it is in vain that they do worship me, teaching the doctrines and the commandments of men." If you keep those man-made laws and break the Ten Commandments, you will receive the Mark of the Beast.

Now, what I would like for every man, woman, and child in this audience to remember, if you forget everything else, Jesus Christ, the Son of the Living God, in full cooperation with His Father, loved us to the point that they were willing to do that on our behalf. It's done, folks. We have been bought with a price. But it will do us no good unless we go to the Father and in the name and blood of His Son ask for forgiveness and restoration to His likeness.

The Ark of the Covenant - A Connection to Q

Over the past few years, I have learned that when specific numbers or phrases are presented in something we have already been led to research, it usually is a sign that there is something more we need to pay attention to. A further connection can be gleaned. The Divine matrix is revealing itself. And in Ron's testimony, there are very specific numbers, phrases, and descriptions of things presented.

During the part of his testimony where Ron describes the moment he first discovered the chamber on that fateful day, he tells about how when he first peered into the chamber that he eventually found to be the one holding the Ark of the Covenant, he was looking through a small round hole. In the center of the hole, from his perspective, hung a large stalactite. This was unusual for him because stalactites were rare inside this cavern.

My wife and I were watching the Ark of the Covenant documentary together. When we got to this part she suddenly exclaimed, "Pause it! Pause it!" I paused it and turned to her, waiting for her to explain what she noticed.

"A round hole with a line hanging down the center of it, that's a Paleo Q!"

Instant goosebumps.

Images for Φ / q

YHWH had marked the chamber that held the Ark of the Covenant with a Qof. That was really when I knew there were more connections to be discovered.

One of the first things that comes to mind when thinking of the Ark of the Covenant is gold. So straight to the Q drops I went, searching for gold.

Q Post 197, Nov 22, 2017 4:47:21 PM EST

Ancient Egyptians considered gold "the skin of the gods" -- specifically the sun god Ra -- and often used it to craft objects of spiritual significance.

Why is this relevant?

Q

Q Post 197: $1 + 9 + 7 = 17$ (Q)

Nov 22: 11 (hexadecimal Q) 22 (Tav or mark of the cross, Yah's mark)

2017: $2 + 17 = 19$ (Qof)

Nov 22, 2017 4:47:21: can be written as 11 22 20 17 16:47:21: $11 + 22 + 20 + 17 + 16 + 47 + 21 = 154$. With the rules of Gematria, we can isolate the 1, add the 5 and 4 to get 9. [1]54: 1[9]: 19 (Qof)

Okay, that's interesting. A Q post mentioning gold and objects of spiritual significance. The next step for me was to search for other phrases that equals 197 in Simple Gematria, since this was Q Post 197.

The Armor of God

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness in place, and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. 17 Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the Lord's people.

Have faith in Humanity.

Have faith in Yourself.

Have faith in God.

It could be said that the Ark of the Covenant was a dimensional portal between YHWH and man.

My Heart Will Go On = 197

It just so happens that a metal cover of My Heart Will Go On by Dan Vasc appeared in my YouTube history within a week prior to making this connection. I had not watched it before, yet there it was in my watch history. I was looking at my history to find a different video I wanted to watch again, saw it there, thought, "that's strange, guess I should watch it." And so, I did. This is how the Divine Matrix works. I did not go searching out this song because of the number 197. He knew ahead of time that I would find "My Heart Will Go On" in the Gematria results when I was looking at what else equals 197 that might connect Q to the Ark of the Covenant. He put the song in my playlist for me. That's what I am talking about when I say, if you pay attention the Divine Matrix will reveal itself to you. YHWH is saying, "I am right here, and I care about all the details, even the tiniest most minute ones, and I want to share them with you, my child."

Ron says he discovered the Ark of the Covenant on the 6th of January, 1982, at exactly 2:00 in the afternoon local time. He describes how on that day he was broke and owed the hotel he was staying at $300 dollars. An Arab gentleman gave him $300 and he did not even know Ron was broke.

6th of January 1982 2:00PM (or 14:00) and $300. If we write these numbers out, using the 24-hour time stamp, or military time, for 2:00PM (14:00) and removing zeros, we get the following:
6 1 1982 14 3

$$6 + 1 + 1 + 9 + 8 + 2 + 1 + 4 + 3 = 35$$

Of course, JFK was the 35th President of the United States. But what happened 35 years later on this date?

35 years later on the 6th of January 2017, Congress made the election of Donald J. Trump official, certifying the votes of the Electoral College in a joint session, which ended shortly before 2:00PM Eastern Standard Time.

4,10,20

Using the date and time stamp of Q 35, we get the number 39. Here is how.

Nov 01, 2017 10:56:38 PM can be written as 11/1/2017 22:56:38. Now lets add all those numbers up.

$$1 + 1 + 1 + 2 + 1 + 7 + 2 + 2 + 5 + 6 + 3 + 8 = 39$$

39 connects to JFK via the Zapruder film, where frame number 313 shows the moment of the fatal head wound. $3 \times 13 = 39$.

It just so happens that 39 years after Ron Wyatt discovered the Ark of the Covenant, on the 6th of January, at exactly 2:00 in the afternoon local time in Washington DC, the "mob removes the last barrier protecting the east side of the Capitol."

Earlier I showed how the story rebellion and redemption in the Bible can be told with the number 202. Well, there is more to the story that I have not covered with the 202 connections. The story of the ultimate purpose of His Plan, heaven coming to earth. A quick recap to set the stage.

Matthew 13:37-43 states that the Son of Man will send his angels into the world at the end of the age to remove the tares from the harvest field and destroy them. Ask yourself, how do you remove all the wicked who are in charge of the various aspects of society, from the economic, religious, government, entertainment, medical, and education sectors just to name a few, without society itself collapsing into chaos, thus harming the wheat? As I have stated before, it makes the most sense that it be some sort of covert behind the scenes operation. A silent war. Something that if you were not paying attention, you might not even notice. Then it would probably make the most sense to slow roll it out to the public while waking them up to just how evil and corrupt everything is around them. Perhaps one month we learn of, oh, I don't know, just for grinzies let's say we learn of the death of maybe a Prince Phillip. Then 17 months later we learn of the death of, let's say, a Queen Elizabeth. And then maybe 17 months later we learn of the death of a Jacob Rothschild. Would there be any clues about what is going on?

Revelation 20 speaks to the camp of the Saints being surrounded by the nations of the earth that Satan has gathered from the 4 corners of the earth, or the 4 cardinal directions of the compass, with all hope seemingly lost. A reference to Gog and Magog is given, which, as I show in Part 5, is a flashback to the events surrounding the Esther story, the 17th book of the Bible I might add, to paint a picture for the reader of what to expect. In that story, the children of Yah are surrounded, cut off. The enemy has laid their plans, erected their gallows, and initiated the attack. But with Yah, hope is never lost. The enemy's plans boomerang on them. They were destroyed by their own weapons and hung by their own gallows. They learned the hard way that YHWH is the absolute sovereign ruler of the universe. Perhaps by surrounding the Camp of the Saints, the enemies of YHWH walk right into a trap of their own making, and He has them right where He wants them? Easier pickings for removal from the earth? I grant there is speculation on my part, but I am thinking there would be clues, right?
