The Testament of Re'uvén

The First-Born Son of Ya'aqov and Le'ah.

THE COPY OF THE TESTAMENT OF RE'UVEN, even the commands which he gave his sons before he died in the hundred and twenty-fifth year of his life.

1 Re'uvén, the first-born son of Ya'aqov and Le'ah. The man of experience counsels against fornication and points out the ways in which men are most apt to fall into error.

2 Two years after the death of Yoceph his brother, when Re'uvén fell ill, his sons and his sons' sons were gathered together to visit him.

3 And he said to them: My children, behold I am dying, and go the way of my fathers.

4 And seeing there Yahudah, and Gad, and Asher, his brethren, he said to them: Raise me up that I may tell to my brethren and to my children what things I have hidden in my heart, for behold now at length I am passing away.

5 And he arose and kissed them, and said unto them: Hear, my brethren, and do ye my children, give ear to Re'uvén your father, in the commands which I give unto you.

6 And behold I call to witness against you this day the Elohiym of heaven, that ye walk not in the sins of youth and fornication, wherein I was poured out, and defiled the bed of my father Ya'aqov.

7 And I tell you that he smote me with a sore plague in my loins for seven months; and had not my father Jamb prayed for me to YAHUAHA, YAHUAHA would have destroyed me.

8 For I was thirty years old when I wrought the evil thing before YAHUAHA, and for seven months I was sick unto death. 9 And after this I repented with set purpose of my soul for seven years before YAHUAHA. 10 And wine and strong drink I drank not, and flesh entered not into my mouth, and I ate no pleasant food; but I mourned over my sin, for it was great, such as had not been in Yashar'el.

¹¹ And now hear me, my children, what things I saw concerning the seven spirits of deceit, when I repented.

¹² Seven spirits therefore are appointed against man, and they are the leaders in the works of youth.

¹³ And seven other spirits are given to him at his creation, that through them should be done every work of man.

¹⁴ The first is the spirit of life, with which the constitution of man is created.

¹⁵ The second is the sense of sight, with which arises desire.

¹⁶ The third is the sense of hearing, with which cometh teaching.

¹⁷ The fourth is the sense of smell, with which tastes are given to draw air and breath.

¹⁸ The fifth is the power of speech, with which cometh knowledge.

²⁰ The seventh is the power of procreation and sexual intercourse, with which through love of pleasure sins enter in.

²² Besides all these there is an eighth spirit of sleep, with which is brought about the trance of nature and the of death.

²³ With these spirits are mingled the spirits of error.

²⁴ First, the spirit of fornication is seated in the nature and in the senses;

²⁵ The second, the spirit of insatiableness in the belly;

²⁶ The third, the spirit of fighting, in the liver and gall.

²⁷ The fourth is the spirit of obsequiousness and chicanery, that through officious attention one may be fair in seeming.

²⁸ The fifth is the spirit of pride, that one may be boastful and arrogant.

²⁹ The sixth is the spirit of lying, in perdition and jealousy to practice deceits, and concealments from kindred and friends.

³¹ And with all these the spirit of sleep is joined which is that of error and fantasy.

³³ And now, my children, love the truth, and it will preserve you: hear ye the words of Re'uven your father.

³⁴ Pay no heed to the face of a woman,

³⁵ Nor associate with another man's wife,

³⁶ Nor meddle with affairs of womankind.

³⁷ For had I not seen Bilhah bathing in a covered place, I had not fallen into this great iniquity.

³⁸ For my mind taking in the thought of the woman's nakedness, suffered me not to sleep until I had wrought the abominable thing.

⁴⁰ Having therefore gone in and beheld her nakedness, I wrought the impiety without her perceiving it, and leaving her sleeping departed.

⁴¹ And forthwith an angel of Elohiym revealed to my father concerning my impiety, and he came and mourned over me, and touched her no more.

2 Pay no heed, therefore, my children, to the beauty of women, nor set your mind—on their affairs; but walk in singleness of heart in the fear of YAHUAHA, and expend labor on good works, and on study and on your flocks, until YAHUAHA give you a wife, whom He will, that ye suffer not as I did.

² For until my father's death I had not boldness to look in his face, or to speak to any of my brethren, because of the reproach.

³ Even until now my conscience causeth me anguish on account of my impiety.

⁴ And yet my father comforted me much, and prayed for me unto YAHUAHA, that the anger of YAHUAHA might pass from me, even as YAHUAHA showed.

⁵ And thenceforth until now I have been on my guard and sinned not.

⁹ For ye heard regarding Yoceph how he guarded himself from a woman, and purged his thoughts from all fornication, and found favor in the sight of Elohiym and men.

¹⁰ For the Mitsrayimian woman did many things unto him, and summoned magicians, and offered him love potions, but the purpose of his soul admitted no evil desire.

¹¹ Therefore the Elohiym of your fathers delivered him from every evil and hidden death.

¹² For if fornication overcomes not your mind, neither can Beliar overcome you.

¹³ For evil are women, my children; and since they have no power or strength over man, they use wiles by outward attractions, that they may draw him to themselves.

¹⁴ And whom they cannot bewitch by outward attractions, him they overcome by craft.

¹⁶ For a woman cannot force a man openly, but by a harlot's bearing she beguiles him.

¹⁹ And the women lusting in their minds after their forms, gave birth to giants, for the Watchers appeared to them as reaching even unto heaven.

²¹ And command the women likewise not to associate with men, that they also may be pure in mind.

²³ For in fornication there is neither understanding nor Godliness, and all jealousy dwelleth in the lust thereof.

²⁴ Therefore, then I say unto you, ye will be jealous against the sons of Leviy, and will seek to be exalted over them; but ye shall not be able.

²⁵ For Elohiym will avenge them, and ye shall die by an evil death. For to Leviy Elohiym gave the sovereignty and to Yahudah with him and to me also, and to Dan and Yoceph, that we should be for rulers.

²⁶ Therefore I command you to hearken to Leviy, because he shall know the law of YAHUAHA, and shall give ordinances for judgement and shall sacrifice for all Yashar'el until the consummation of the times, as the anointed High Priest, of whom YAHUAHA spoke.

²⁷ I adjure you by the Elohiym of heaven to do truth each one unto his neighbor and to entertain love each one for his brother.

²⁸ And draw ye near to Leviy in humbleness, of heart, that ye may receive a blessing from his mouth.

²⁹ For he shall bless Yashar'el and Yahudah, because him hath YAHUAHA chosen to be king over all the nation.

³⁰ And bow down before his seed, for on our behalf it will die in wars visible and invisible and will be among you an eternal king.

The Testament of Shim'on

The Second Son of Ya'aqov and Le'ah.

THE COPY OF THE WORDS OF SHIM'ON, the things which he spoke to his sons before he died, in the hundred and twentieth year of his life, at which time Yoceph, his brother, died.

1 Shim'on, the second son of Ya'aqov and Le'ah. The strong man. He becomes jealous of Yoceph and is an instigator of the plot against Yoceph.

2 For when Shim'on was sick, his sons came to visit him. and he strengthened himself and sat up and kissed them, and said:

3 Hearken, my children, to Shim'on your father and I will declare unto you what things I have in my heart.

4 I was born of Ya'aqov as my father's second son; and my mother Le'ah called me Shim'on, because YAHUAHA had heard her prayer.

5 Moreover, I became strong exceedingly; I shrank from no achievement nor was I afraid of ought. For my heart was hard, and my liver was immovable, and my bowels without compassion.

6 Because valor also has been given from the Most-High to men in soul and body.

7 For in the time of my youth I was jealous in many things of Yoceph, because my father loved him beyond all.

8 And I set my mind against him to destroy him because the prince of deceit sent forth the spirit of jealousy and blinded my mind, so that I regarded him not as a brother, nor did I spare even Ya'aqov my father.

9 But his Elohiym and the Elohiym of his fathers sent forth His angel, and delivered him out of my hands.

10 For when I went to Shechem to bring ointment for the flocks, and Re'uven to Dothan, where were our necessities and all our stores, Yahudah my brother sold him to the Yishma'elites.

¹¹ And when Re'ufen heard these things he was grieved, for he wished to restore him to his father.

¹³ But YAHAUAHA restrained me and withheld from me the power of my hands; for my right hand was half withered for seven days.

¹⁴ And I knew, my children, that because of Yoceph this had befallen me, and I repented and wept; and I besought YAHAUAHA Elohiym that my hand might be restored and that I might hold aloof from all pollution and envy and from all folly.

¹⁵ For I knew that I had devised an evil thing before YAHAUAHA and Ya'aqov my father, on account of Yoceph my brother, in that I envied him.

¹⁶ And now, my children, hearken unto me and beware of the spirit of deceit and envy.

¹⁷ For envy rules over the whole mind of a man, and suffers him neither to eat nor to drink, nor to do any good thing. But it ever suggests to him to destroy him that he envies; and so long as he that is envied flourishes, he that envies fades away.

¹⁹ For if a man flee to YAHAUAHA, the evil spirit runs away from him and his mind is lightened.

²⁰ And henceforward he sympathizes with him whom he envied and forgives those who are hostile to him, and so ceases from his envy.

Re'ufen counsels his hearers against envy.

2 And my father asked concerning me, because he saw that I was sad; and I said unto him, I am pained in my liver.

² For I mourned more than they all, because I was guilty of the selling of Yoceph.

³ And when we went down into Mitsrayim, and he bound me as a spy, I knew that I was suffering justly, and I grieved not.

⁵ Beware, therefore, my children, of all jealousy and envy, and walk in singleness of heart, that Elohiym may give you also grace and glory, and blessing upon your heads, even as ye saw in Yoceph's case.

⁹ For even in sleep malicious jealousy gnaws, and with wicked spirits disturbs the soul, and causeth the body to be troubled, and wakes the mind from sleep in confusion; and as a wicked and poisonous spirit, so appears it to men.

¹⁰ Therefore was Yoceph comely in appearance, and goodly to look upon, because no wickedness dwelt in him; for some of the trouble of the spirit the face manifests.

¹¹ And now, my children, make your hearts good before YAHUAHA, and your ways straight before men, and ye shall find grace before YAHUAHA and men.

¹² Beware, therefore, of fornication, for fornication is mother of all evils, separating from Elohiym, and bringing near to Beliar.

¹⁵ And they shall be few in number, divided in Leviy and Yahudah, and there shall be none of you for sovereignty, even as also our father prophesied in his blessings.

A prophecy of the coming of the Messiah.

3 Behold, I have told you all things, that I may be acquitted of your sin.

² Now, if ye remove from you your envy and all stiff-neckedness, is a rose shall my bones flourish in Yashar'el, and as a lily my flesh in Ya'aqov, and my odor shall be as the odor of Libanus; and as cedars shall holy ones be multiplied from me forever, and their branches shall stretch afar off.

⁴ Then shall fail the land of Cham, and all the people shall perish.

⁵ Then shall all the earth rest from trouble, and all the world under heaven from war.

⁷ For YAHAUAHA Elohiym shall appear on earth, and Himself save men,

⁸ Then shall all the spirits of deceit be given to be trodden under foot, and men shall rule over wicked spirits.

¹³ And when Shim'on had made an end of commanding his sons, he slept with fathers, an hundred and twenty years old.

¹⁶ And the sons of Shim'on bewailed their father.

¹⁷ And they were in Mitsrayim until the day of their departure by the hand of Moshe.

The Testament of Leviy

The Third Son of Ya'aqov and Le'ab.

THE COPY OF THE WORDS OF LEVIY, the things which he ordained unto his sons, according to all that they should do, and what things should befall them until the day of judgement.

¹ Leviy, the third son of Ya'aqov and Le'ab. A mystic and dreamer of dreams, a prophet.

² He was sound in health when he called them to him; for it had been revealed to him that he should die.

³ And when they were gathered together, he said to them:

⁵ And I was young, about twenty years of age, when, with Shim'on, I wrought vengeance on Chamor for our sister Dinah.

⁶ And when I was feeding the flocks in Abel-Maul, the spirit of understanding of YAHUAHA came upon me, and I saw all men corrupting their way, and that unrighteousness had built for itself walls, and lawlessness sat upon towers.

⁷ And I was grieving for the race of the sons of men, and I prayed to YAHUAHA that I might be saved.

⁸ Then there fell upon me a sleep, and I beheld a high mountain, and I was upon it.

⁹ And behold the heavens were opened, and an angel of Elohiym said to me, Leviy, enter.

¹⁰ And I entered from the first heaven, and I saw there a great sea hanging.

¹¹ And further I saw a second heaven far brighter and more brilliant, for there was a boundless light also therein,

¹² And I said to the angel, Why is this so? And the angel said to me, Marvel not at this, for you shalt see another heaven more brilliant and incomparable.

¹⁴ And by thee and Yahudah shall YAHUAHA appear among men, saving every race of men.

¹⁵ And from YAHUAHA's portion shall be thy life, and He shall be thy field and vineyard, and fruits, gold, and silver.

¹⁶ Hear, therefore, regarding the heavens which have been shown to thee.

¹⁷ The lowest is for this cause gloomy unto thee, in that it beholds all the unrighteous deeds of men.

²⁰ And above them are the holy ones.

²¹ And in the highest of all dwelleth the Great Glory, far above all holiness.

²² In the heaven next to it are the archangels, who minister and make propitiation to YAHUAHA for all the sins of ignorance of the righteous;

²³ Offering to YAHUAHA a sweet-smelling savor, a reasonable and a bloodless offering.

²⁴ And in the heaven below this are the angels who bear answers to the angels of the presence of YAHUAHA.

²⁵ And in the heaven next to this are thrones and dominions, in which always they offer praise to Elohiym.

²⁷ But the sons of men, having no perception of these things, sin and provoke the Most-High.

Leviy urges piety and education.

2 Now, therefore, know that YAHUAHA shall execute judgement upon the sons of men.

² Because when the rocks are being rent, and the sun quenched, and the waters dried up, and the fire cowering, and all creation troubled, and the invisible spirits melting away, and Hades taketh spoils through the visitations of the Most-High, men will be unbelieving and persist in their iniquity.

³ On this account with punishment shall they be judged.

⁵ The light of knowledge shalt you light up in Ya'aqov, and as the sun shalt you be to all the seed of Yashar'el.

⁶ And there shall be given to thee a blessing, and to all thy seed until YAHUAHA shall visit all the Goyim in His tender mercies forever.

⁷ And therefore there have been given to thee counsel and understanding, that you might instruct thy sons concerning this;

⁸ Because they that bless Him shall be blessed, and they that curse Him shall perish.

⁹ And thereupon the angel opened to me the gates of heaven, and I saw the holy temple, and upon a throne of glory the Most-High.

¹⁰ And He said to me: Leviy, I have given thee the blessing of the priesthood until I come and sojourn in the midst of Yashar'el.

¹¹ Then the angel brought me down to the earth, and gave me a shield and a sword, and said to me: Execute vengeance on Shechem because of Dinah, thy sister, and I will be with thee because YAHUAHA hath sent me.

¹² And I destroyed at that time the sons of Chamor, as it is written in the heavenly tables.

¹³ And I said to him: I pray thee, O Adonai, tell me Thy name, that I may call upon Thee in a day of tribulation.

¹⁴ And he said: I am the angel who intercedes for the nation of Yashar'el that they may not be smitten utterly, for every evil spirit attacks it.

Levy has visions and shows what rewards are in store for the righteous.

3 And when I was going to my Father, I found a brazen shield; wherefore also the name of the mountain is Aspis, which is near Gebal, to the south of Abila.

² And I kept these words in my heart. And after this I counselled my father, and Re'uven my brother, to bid the sons of Chamor not to be circumcised; for I was zealous because of the abomination which they had wrought on my sister.

³ And I slew Shechem first, and Shim'on slew Chamor. And after this my brothers came and smote that city with the edge of the sword.

⁴ And my father heard these things and was wroth, and he was grieved in that they had received the circumcision, and after that had been put to death, and in his blessings, he looked amiss upon us.

⁵ For we sinned because we had done this thing against his will, and he was sick on that day.

⁶ But I saw that the sentence of Elohiym was for evil upon Shechem; for they sought to do to Sarah and Rivqah as they had done to Dinah our sister, but YAHUAHA prevented them.

⁷ And they persecuted Avraham our father when he was a stranger, and they vexed his flocks when they were big with young; and Eblaen, who was born in his house, they most shamefully handled.

⁸ And thus they did to all strangers, taking away their wives by force, and they banished them.

⁹ But the wrath of YAHUAHA came upon them to the uttermost.

¹⁰ And I said to my father Ya'aqov: By thee will YAHUAHA despoil the Canaanites and will give their land to thee and to thy seed after thee.

¹¹ For from this day forward shall Shechem be called a city of imbeciles; for as a man mocks a fool, so did we mock them.

¹³ And there again I saw a vision as the former, after we had spent there seventy days.

¹⁴ And I saw seven men in white raiment saying unto me: Arise, put on the robe of the priesthood, and the crown of righteousness, and the breastplate of understanding, and the garment of truth, and the late of faith, and the turban of the head, and the ephod of prophecy.

¹⁶ And the first anointed me with holy oil, and gave to me the staff of judgement.

¹⁷ The second washed me with pure water, and fed me with bread and wine even the most holy things, and clad me with a holy and glorious robe.

¹⁸ The third clothed me with a linen vestment like an ephod.

¹⁹ The fourth put round me a girdle like unto purple.

²⁰ The fifth gave me a branch of rich olive.

²¹ The sixth placed a crown on my head.

²² The seventh placed on my head a diadem of priesthood, and filled my hands with incense, that I might serve as priest to YAHUAHA Elohiym.

²³ And they said to me: Leviy, thy seed shall be divided into three offices, for a sign of the glory of YAHUAHA who is to come.

²⁴ And the first portion shall be great; yea, greater than it shall none be.

²⁵ The second shall be in the priesthood.

²⁷ And His presence is beloved, as a prophet of the Most-High, of the seed of Avraham our father.

²⁸ Therefore, every desirable thing in Yashar'el shall be for thee and for thy seed, and ye shall eat everything fair to look upon, and the table of YAHUAHA shall thy seed apportion.

²⁹ And some of them shall be high priests, and judges, and scribes; for by their mouth shall the holy place be guarded.

³⁰ And when I awoke, I understood that this dream was like the first dream. And I hid this also in my heart, and told it not to any man upon the earth.

³¹ And after two days I and Yahudah went up with our father Ya'aqov to Yitschaq our father's father.

³² And my father's father blessed me according to all the words of the visions which I had seen. And he would not come with us to Bethel.

³³ And when we came to Bethel, my father saw a vision concerning me, that I should be their priest unto Elohiym.

³⁴ And he rose up early in the morning, and paid tithes of all to YAHUAHA through me. And so we came to Hebron to dwell there.

³⁵ And Yitschaq called me continually to put me in remembrance of the law of YAHUAHA, even as the angel of YAHUAHA showed unto me.

³⁶ And he taught me the law of the priesthood of sacrifices, whole burnt-offerings, first-fruits, freewill-offerings, peace-offerings.

³⁷ And each day he was instructing me, and was busied on my behalf before YAHUAHA, and said to me: Beware of the spirit of fornication; for this shall continue and shall by thy seed pollute the holy place.

³⁸ Take, therefore, to thyself a wife without blemish or pollution, while yet you are young, and not of the race of strange nations.

³⁹ And before entering into the holy place, bathe; and when you offers the sacrifice, wash; and again, when you finishes the sacrifice, wash.

⁴⁰ Of twelve trees having leaves offer to YAHUAHA, as Avraham taught me also.

⁴¹ And of every clean beast and bird offer a sacrifice to YAHUAHA.

⁴² And of all thy first fruits and of wine offer the first, as a sacrifice to YAHUAHA Elohiym; and every sacrifice you shalt salt with salt.

⁴³ Now, therefore, observe whatsoever I command you, children; for whatsoever things I have heard from my fathers I have declared unto you.

⁴⁶ And ye shall be scattered as captives among the Goyim, and shall be for a reproach and for a curse there.

⁴⁷ For the house which YAHUAHA shall choose shall be called Yerushalayim, as is contained in the book of Chanok the righteous.

⁴⁸ Therefore when I took a wife I was twenty-eight years old, and her name was Melcha.

⁴⁹ And she conceived and bare a son, and I called his name Gersam, for we were sojourners in our land.

⁵⁰ And I saw concerning him, that he would not be in the first rank.

⁵¹ And Kohath was born in the thirty-fifth year of my life, towards sunrise.

⁵² And I saw in a vision that he was standing on high in the midst of all the congregation.

⁵³ Therefore I called his name Kohath which is, beginning of majesty and instruction.

⁵⁴ And she bare me a third son, in the fortieth year of my life; and since his mother bare him with difficulty, I called him Merari, that is, 'my bitterness,' because he also was like to die.

⁵⁵ And Jochebed was born. in Mitsrayim, in my sixty-fourth year, for I was renowned then in the midst of my brethren.

⁵⁶ And Gersam took a wife, and she bare to him Lomni and Semei. And the sons of Kohath, Amram, Yissshakar, Hebron, and Ozeel. And the sons of Merari, Mooli, and Mouses.

⁵⁷ And in the ninety-fourth year Amram took Jochebed my daughter to him to wife, for they were born in one day, he and my daughter.

⁵⁸ Eight years old was I when I went into the land of Canaan, and eighteen years when I slew Shechem, and at nineteen years I became priest, and at twenty-eight years I took a wife, and at forty-eight I went into Mitsrayim.

⁵⁹ And behold, my children, ye are a third generation. In my hundred and eighteenth year Yoceph died.

Levy shows how wisdom survives destruction. He has no use for scornful people.

4 And now, my children, I command you: Fear YAHUAHA your Elohiym with your whole heart and walk in simplicity according to all His law.

² And do ye also teach your children letters, that they may have understanding all their life, reading unceasingly the Torah of Elohiym.

³ For everyone that knows the Torah of YAHUAHA shall be honored, and shall not be a stranger whithersoever he goeth.

⁴ Yea, many friends shall he gain more than his parents, and many men shall desire to serve him, and to hear the Torah from his mouth.

⁵ Work righteousness, therefore, my children, upon the earth, that ye may have it as a treasure in heaven.

⁶ And sow good things in your souls, that ye may find them in your life.

⁷ But if ye sow evil things, ye shall reap every trouble and affliction.

¹⁰ Whosoever teaches noble things and does them, shall be enthroned with kings, as was also Yoceph my brother.

¹² For our father Yashar'el is pure from the transgressions of the chief priests [who shall lay their hands upon the Savior of the world].

¹³ For as the heaven is purer in YAHUAHA's sight than the earth, so also be ye, the lights of Yashar'el, purer than all the Goyim.

¹⁴ But if ye be darkened through transgressions, what, therefore, will all the Goyim do living in blindness?

¹⁶ The offerings of YAHUAHA ye shall rob, and from His portion shall ye steal choice portions, eating them contemptuously with harlots.

¹⁸ And ye shall be puffed up because of your priesthood, lifting yourselves up against men, and not only so, but also against the commands of Elohiym.

¹⁹ For ye shall contemn the holy things with jests and laughter.

²⁰ Therefore the temple, which YAHUAHA shall choose, shall be laid waste through your uncleanness, and ye shall be captives throughout all nations.

²¹ And ye shall be an abomination unto them, and ye shall receive reproach and everlasting shame from the righteous judgement of Elohiym.

²² And all who hate you shall rejoice at your destruction.

²³ And if you were not to receive mercy through Avraham, Yitschaq, and Ya'aqov, our fathers, not one of our seed should be left upon the earth.

²⁴ And now I have learnt that for seventy weeks ye shall go astray, and profane the priesthood, and pollute the sacrifices.

²⁵ And ye shall make void the law and set at nought the words of the prophets by evil perverseness.

²⁶ And ye shall persecute righteous men and hate the unrighteous; the words of the faithful shall ye abhor.

²⁸ And your holy places shall be laid waste even to the ground because of him.

²⁹ And ye shall have no place that is clean; but ye shall be among the Goyim a curse and a dispersion until He shall again visit you, and in pity shall receive you through faith and water.

He prophesies the coming of the Messiah. This was written 100 years before HaMashiach.

5 And whereas ye have heard concerning the seventy weeks, hear also concerning the priesthood. For in each jubilee there shall be a priesthood.

² And in the first jubilee, the first who is anointed to the priesthood shall be great and shall speak to Elohiym as to a father.

³ And his priesthood shall be perfect with YAHUAHA, and in the day of his gladness shall he arise for the salvation of the world.

⁴ In the second jubilee, he that is anointed shall be conceived in the sorrow of beloved ones; and his priesthood shall be honored and shall be glorified by all.

⁵ And the third priest shall he taken hold of by sorrow.

⁶ And the fourth shall be in pain, because unrighteousness shall gather itself against him exceedingly, and all Yashar'el shall hate each one his neighbor.

⁷ The fifth shall be taken hold of by darkness. Likewise, also the sixth and the seventh.

⁸ And in the seventh shall, be such pollution as I cannot express before men, for they shall know it who do these things.

⁹ Therefore shall they be taken captive and become a prey, and their land and their substance shall be destroyed.

¹⁰ And in the fifth week they shall return to their desolate country, and shall renew the house of YAHUAHA.

¹¹ And in the seventh week shall become priests, who are idolaters, adulterers, lovers of money, proud, lawless, lascivious, abusers of children and beasts.

¹² And after their punishment shall have come from YAHUAHA, the priesthood shall fail.

¹³ Then shall YAHUAHA raise up a new priest.

¹⁴ And to him all the words of YAHUAHA shall be revealed; and he shall execute a righteous judgement upon the earth for a multitude of days.

¹⁵ And his star shall arise in heaven as of a king.

¹⁶ Lighting up the light of knowledge as the sun the day, and he shall be magnified in the world.

¹⁷ He shall shine forth as the sun on the earth, and shall remove all darkness from under heaven, and there shall be peace in all the earth.

¹⁸ The heavens shall exult in his days, and the earth shall be glad, and the clouds shall rejoice;

¹⁹ And the knowledge of YAHUAHA shall be poured forth upon the earth, as the water of the seas;

²⁰ And the angels of the glory of the presence of YAHUAHA shall be glad in him.

²¹ The heavens shall be opened, and from the temple of glory shall come upon him sanctification, with the Father's voice as from Avraham to Yitschaq.

²² And the glory of the Most-High shall be uttered over him, and the spirit of understanding and sanctification shall rest upon him in the water.

²³ For he shall give the majesty of YAHUAHA to His sons in truth forevermore;

- ²⁴ And there shall none succeed him for all generations forever.
- ²⁵ And in his priesthood the Goyim shall be multiplied in knowledge upon the earth, and enlightened through the grace of YAHUAHA. In his priesthood shall sin come to an end, and the lawless shall cease to do evil.
- ²⁶ And he shall open the gates of paradise, and shall remove the threatening sword against A'dam, and he shall give to the saints to eat from the tree of life, and the spirit of holiness shall be on them.
- ²⁷ And Beliar shall be bound by him, and he shall give power to His children to tread upon the evil spirits.
- ²⁸ And YAHUAHA shall rejoice in His children and be well pleased in His beloved ones forever.
- ²⁹ Then shall Avraham and Yitschaq and Ya'aqov exult, and I will be glad, and all the saints shall clothe themselves with joy.
- ³⁰ And now, my children, ye have heard all; choose, therefore, for yourselves either the light or the darkness, either the law of YAHUAHA or the works of Beliar.
- ³¹ And his sons answered him., saying, Before YAHUAHA we will walk according to His law.
- ³² And their father said unto them, YAHUAHA is witness, and His angels are witnesses, and ye are witnesses, and I am witness, concerning the word of your mouth.
- ³³ And his sons said unto him: We are witnesses.
- ³⁴ And thus Leviy ceased commanding his sons; and he stretched out his feet on the bed, and was gathered to his fathers, after he had lived a hundred and thirty-seven years.
- ³⁵ And they laid him in a coffin, and afterwards they buried him in Hebron, with I Avraham, Yitschaq, and Ya'aqov.

The Testament of Yahudah

The Fourth Son of Ya'aqov and Le'ab.

Yahudah, the fourth son of Ya'aqov and Le'ab. He is the giant, athlete, warrior; he recounts heroic deeds. He runs so fast that he can outstrip a hind.

1 The copy of the words of Yahudah, what things he spake to his sons before he died.

2 They gathered themselves together, therefore, and came to him, and he said to them: Hearken, my children, to Yahudah your father.

3 I was the fourth son born to my father Ya'aqov; and Le'ah my mother named me Yahudah, saying, I give thanks to YAHUAHA, because He hath given me a fourth son also.

4 I was swift in my youth, and obedient to my father in everything.

5 And I honored my mother and my mother's sister.

6 And it came to pass, when I became a man, that my father blessed me, saying, Thou shalt be a king, prospering in all things.

7 And YAHUAHA showed me favor in all my works both in the field and in the house.

8 I know that I raced a hind, and caught it, and prepared the meat for my father, and he did eat.

9 And the roes I used to master in the chase and overtake all that was in the plains.

10 A wild mare I overtook and caught it and tamed it.

11 I slew a lion and plucked a kid out of its mouth.

12 I took a bear by its paw and hurled it down the cliff, and it was crushed.

13 I outran the wild boar, and seizing it as I ran, I tore it in sunder.

14 A leopard in Hebron leaped upon my dog, and I caught it by the tail, and hurled it on the rocks, and it was broken in twain

¹⁵ I found a wild ox feeding in the fields, and seizing it by the horns, and whirling it round and stunning it, I cast it from me and slew it.

¹⁶ And when the two kings of the Canaanites came sheathed, in armor against our flocks, and much people with them, single handed I rushed upon the king of Hazor, and smote him on the greives and dragged him down, and so I slew him.

¹⁷ And the other, the king of Tappuah, as he sat upon his horse, I slew, and so I scattered all his people.

¹⁹ And I fought with this other for two hours; and I clave his shield in twain, and I chopped off his feet, and killed him.

²⁰ And as I was stripping off his breastplate, behold nine men his companions began to fight with me,

²¹ And I wound my garment on my hand; and I slung stones at them, and killed four of them, and the rest fled.

²² And Ya'aqov my father slew Beelesath, king of all the kings, a giant in strength, twelve cubits high.

²³ And fear fell upon them, and they ceased warring against us.

²⁴ Therefore my father was free from anxiety in the wars when I was with my brethren.

²⁵ For he saw in a vision concerning me that an angel of might followed me everywhere, that I should not be overcome.

²⁶ And in the south there came upon us a greater war than that in Shechem; and I joined in battle array with my brethren, and pursued a thousand men, and slew of them two hundred men and four kings.

²⁷ And I went up upon the wall, and I slew four mighty men.

²⁸ And so we captured Hazor, and took all the spoil.

²⁹ And the next day we departed to Aretan, a city strong and walled and inaccessible, threatening us with death.

³⁰ But I and Gad approached on the east side of the city, and Re'uven and Leviy on the west.

³¹ And they that were upon the wall, thinking that we were alone, were drawn down against us.

³² And so my brothers secretly climbed up the wall on both sides by stakes, and entered the city, while the men knew it not.

³³ And we took it with the edge of the sword.

³⁴ And as for those who had taken refuge in the tower, we set fire to the tower and took both it and, them.

³⁵ And as we were departing the men of Tappuah seized our spoil and seeing this we fought with them.

³⁶ And we slew them. all and recovered our spoil.

³⁷ And when I was at the waters of Kozeba, the men of Iyovel came against us to battle.

³⁸ And we fought with them and routed them; and their allies from Shiloh we slew, and we did not leave them power to come in against us.

³⁹ And the men of Makir came upon us the fifth day, to seize our spoil; and we attacked them and overcame them in fierce battle: for there was a host of mighty men amongst them, and we slew them before they had gone up the ascent.

⁴⁰ And when we came to their city their women rolled upon us stones from the brow of the hill on which the city stood.

⁴¹ And I and Shim'on had ourselves behind the town, and seized upon the heights, and destroyed this city also.

⁴² And the next day it was told us that the king of the city of Gaash with a mighty host was coming against us.

⁴³ I, therefore, and Dan feigned ourselves to be Amorites, and as allies went into their city.

⁴⁴ And in the depth of night our brethren came and we opened to them the gates; and we destroyed all the men and their substance, and we took for a prey all that was theirs, and their three walls we cast down.

⁴⁵ And we drew near to Thamna, where was all the substance of the hostile kings.

⁴⁶ Then being insulted by them, I was therefore wroth, and rushed against them to the summit; and they kept slinging against me stones and darts.

⁴⁷ And had not Dan my brother aided me, they would have slain me.

⁴⁸ We came upon them, therefore, with wrath, and they all fled; and passing by another way, they fought my father, and he made peace with them.

⁴⁹ And we did to them no hurt, and they became tributary to us, and we restored to them their spoil.

⁵⁰ And I built Thamna, and my father built Pabael.

⁵¹ I was twenty years old when this war befell. And the Canaanites feared me and my brethren.

⁵² And I had much cattle, and I had for chief herdsman Iram the Adullamite.

⁵³ And when I went to him I saw Parsaba, king of Adullam; and he spoke unto us, and he made us a feast; and when I was heated he gave me his daughter Bathshua to wife.

⁵⁴ She bare me Er, and Onan and Shelah; and two of them YAHAUAHA smote: for Shelah lived, and his children are ye.

Yabudab describes some archeological findings, a city with walls of Iron and gates of brass. He has an encounter with an adventuress.

2 And eighteen years my father abode in peace with his brother Esau, and his sons with us, after that we came from Mesopotamia, from Lavan.

² And when eighteen years were fulfilled, in the fortieth year of my life, Esau, the brother of my father, came upon us with a mighty and strong people.

³ And Ya'aqov smote Esau with an arrow, and he was taken up wounded on Mount Seir, and as he went he died at Anoniram.

⁴ And we pursued after the sons of Esau.

⁵ Now they had a city with walls of iron and gates of brass; and we could not enter into it, and we encamped around, and besieged it.

⁶ And when they opened not to us in twenty days, I set up a ladder in the sight of all and with my shield upon my head I went up, sustaining the assault of stones, upwards of three talents weight; and I slew four of their mighty men.

⁷ And Re'uven and Gad slew six others.

⁸ Then they asked from us terms of peace; and having taken counsel with our father, we received them as tributaries.

⁹ And they gave us five hundred cors of wheat, five hundred baths of oil, five hundred measures of wine, until the famine, when we went down into Mitsrayim.

¹⁰ And after these things my son Er took to wife Tamar, from Mesopotamia, a daughter of Aram.

¹¹ Now Er was wicked, and he was in need concerning Tamar, because she was not of the land of Canaan.

¹² And on the third night an angel of YAHUAHA smote him.

¹³ And he had not known her according to the evil craftiness of his mother, for he did not wish to have children by her.

¹⁴ In the days of the wedding feast I gave Onan to her in marriage; and he also in wickedness knew her not, though he spent with her a year.

¹⁵ And when I threatened him, he went in unto her, but he spilled the seed on the ground, according to the command of his mother, and he also died through wickedness.

¹⁶ And I wished to give Shelah also to her, but his mother did not permit it; for she wrought evil against Tamar, because she was not the daughters of Canaan, as she also herself was.

¹⁷ And I knew that the race of the Canaanites was wicked, but the impulse of youth blinded my mind.

¹⁸ And when I saw her pouring out wine, owing to the intoxication of wine I was deceived, and took her although my father had not counselled it.

¹⁹ And while I was away she went and took for Shelah a wife from Canaan.

²⁰ And when I knew what she had done, I cursed her in the anguish of my soul.

²¹ And she also died through her wickedness together with her sons.

²² And after these things, while Tamar was a widow, she heard after two years that I was going up, to shear my sheep, and adorned herself in bridal array, and sat in the city Enaim by the gate.

²³ For it was a law of the Amorites, that she who was about to marry should sit in fornication seven days by the gate.

²⁴ Therefore being drunk with wine, I did not recognize her; and her beauty deceived me, through the fashion of her adorning.

²⁵ And I turned aside to her and said: Let me go in unto thee.

²⁶ And she said: What wilt you give me? And I gave her my staff, and my girdle, and the diadem of my kingdom in pledge.

²⁷ And I went in unto her, and she conceived.

²⁸ And not knowing what I had done, I wished to slay her; but she privily sent my pledges and put me to shame.

²⁹ And when I called her, I heard also the secret words which I spoke when lying with her in my drunkenness; and I could not slay her, because it was from YAHUAHA.

³⁰ For I said, Lest haply she did it in subtlety, having received the pledge from another woman.

³¹ But I came not again near her while I lived, because I had done this abomination in all Yashar'el.

³² Moreover, they who were in the city said there was no harlot in the gate, because she came from another place, and sat for a while in the gate.

³³ And I thought that no one knew that I had gone into her.

³⁴ And after this we came into Mitsrayim to Yoceph, because of the famine.

³⁵ And I was forty and six years old, and seventy and three years lived I in Mitsrayim.

He counsels against wine and lust as twin evils. "For he who is drunken reverences no man." (Verse 13).

3 And now I command you, my children, hearken to Yahudah your father, and keep my sayings to perform all the ordinances of YAHUAHA, and to obey the commands of Elohiym.

² And walk not after your lusts, nor in the imaginations of your thoughts in haughtiness of heart; and glory not in the deeds and strength of your youth, for this also is evil in the eyes of YAHAUAHA.

³ Since I also gloried that in wars no comely woman's face ever enticed me, and reprov'd Re'uven my brother concerning Bilhah, the wife of my father, the spirits of jealousy and of fornication arrayed themselves against me, until I lay with Bathshua the Canaanite, and Tamar, who was espoused to my sons.

⁴ For I said to my father-in-law: I will take counsel with my father, and so will I take thy daughter.

⁵ And he was unwilling, but he showed me a boundless store of gold in his daughter's behalf; for he was a king.

⁶ And he adorned her with gold and pearls, and caused her to pour out wine for us at the feast with the beauty of women.

⁷ And the wine turned aside my eyes, and pleasure blinded my heart.

⁸ And I became enamored of, and I lay with her, and transgressed the commandment of YAHAUAHA and the commandment of my fathers, and I took her to wife.

⁹ And YAHAUAHA rewarded me according to the imagination of my heart, inasmuch as I had no joy in her children.

¹⁰ And now, my children, I say unto you, be not drunk with wine; for wine turneth the mind away from the truth, and inspires the passion of lust, and leadeth the eyes into error.

¹¹ For the spirit of fornication hath wine as a minister to give pleasure to the mind; for these two also take away the mind of man.

¹² For if a man drink wine to drunkenness, it disturbs the mind with filthy thoughts leading to fornication, and heats the body to carnal union; and if the occasion of the lust be present, he worketh the sin, and is not ashamed.

¹³ Such is the inebriated man, my children; for he who is drunken reverences no man.

¹⁴ For, lo, it made me also to err, so that I was not ashamed of the multitude in the city, in that before the eyes of all I turned aside unto Tamar, and I wrought a great sin, and I uncovered the covering of my sons' shame.

¹⁵ After I had drunk wine I revered not the commandment of Elohiym, and I took a woman of Canaan to wife.

¹⁶ For much discretion needs the man who drinks wine, my children; and herein is discretion in drinking wine, a man may drink so long as he preserves modesty.

¹⁷ But if he go beyond this limit the spirit of deceit attacks his mind, and it maketh the drunkard to talk filthily, and to transgress and not to be ashamed, but even to glory in his shame, and to account himself honorable.

¹⁸ He that committeth fornication is not aware when he suffers loss and is not ashamed when put to dishonor.

¹⁹ For even though a man be a king and commit fornication, he is stripped of his kingship by becoming the slave of fornication, as I myself also suffered.

²⁰ For I gave my staff, that is, the stay of my tribe; and my girdle, that is, my power; and my diadem, that is, the glory of my kingdom.

²¹ And indeed I repented of these things; wine and flesh I eat not until my old age, nor did I behold any joy.

²² And the angel of Elohiym showed me that forever do women bear rule over king and beggar alike.

²³ And from the king they take away his glory, and from the valiant man his might, and from the beggar even that little which is the stay of his poverty.

²⁴ Observe, therefore, my children, the right limit in wine; for there are in it four evil spirits: of lust, of hot desire, of profligacy, of filthy lucre.

²⁵ If ye drink wine in gladness, be ye modest in the fear of Elohiym.

²⁶ For if in your gladness the fear of Elohiym departs, then drunkenness arises and shamelessness steals in.

²⁸ Moreover, wine reveals the mysteries of Elohiym and men, even as I also revealed the commandments of Elohiym and the mysteries of Ya'aqov my father to the Canaanitish woman Bathshua, which Elohiym bade me not to reveal.

²⁹ And wine is a cause both of war and confusion.

³⁰ And now, I command you, my children, not to love money, nor to gaze upon the beauty of women, because for the sake of money and beauty I was led astray to Bathshua the Canaanite.

³¹ For I know that because of these two things shall my race fall into wickedness.

³² For even wise men among my sons shall they mar, and shall cause the kingdom of Yahudah to be diminished, which YAHUAHA gave me because of my obedience to my father.

³³ For I never caused grief to Ya'aqov, my father; for all things whatsoever he commanded I did.

³⁴ And Yitschaq, the father of my father, blessed me to be king in Yashar'el, and Ya'aqov further blessed me in like manner.

³⁵ And I know that from me shall the kingdom be established.

³⁶ And I know what evils ye will do in the last days.

³⁷ Beware, therefore, my children, of fornication, and the love of money, and hearken to Yahudah your father.

³⁸ For these things withdraw au from the law of Elohiym, and blind the inclination of the soul, and teach arrogance, and suffer not a man to have compassion upon his neighbor.

³⁹ They rob his soul of all goodness, and oppress him with toils and troubles, and drive away sleep from him, and devour his flesh.

⁴⁰ And he hinders the sacrifices of Elohiym; and he remembers not the blessing of Elohiym, he hearkens not to a prophet when he speaks, and resents the words of Godliness.

⁴¹ For he is a slave to two contrary passions, and cannot obey Elohiym, because they have blinded his soul, and he walketh in the day as in the night.

⁴² My children, the love of money leadeth to idolatry; because, when led astray through money, men name as Elohiym those who are not Elohiym, and it causes him who hath it to fall into madness.

⁴³ For the sake of money I lost my children, and had not my repentance, and my humiliation, and the prayers of my father been accepted, I should have died childless.

⁴⁴ But the Elohiym of my fathers had mercy on me, because I did it in ignorance.

⁴⁵ And the prince of deceit blinded me, and I sinned as a man and as flesh, being corrupted through sins; and I learnt my own weakness while thinking myself invincible.

⁴⁶ Know, therefore, my children, that two spirits wait upon man—the spirit of truth and the spirit of deceit.

⁴⁷ And in the midst is the spirit of understanding of the mind, to which it belongs to turn whithersoever it will.

⁴⁸ And the works of truth and the works of deceit are written upon the hearts of men, and each one of them YAHUAHA knows.

⁴⁹ And there is no time at which the works of men can be hid; for on the heart itself have they been written down before YAHUAHA.

⁵⁰ And the spirit of truth testifies all things, and accuses all; and the sinner is burnt up by his own heart, and cannot raise his face to the judge.

Yabudah makes a vivid simile concerning tyranny and a dire prophecy concerning the morals of his listeners.

4 And now, my children, I command you, love Leviy, that ye may abide, and exalt not yourselves against him, lest ye be utterly destroyed.

² For to me YAHUAHA gave the kingdom, and to him the priesthood, and He set the kingdom beneath the priesthood.

³ To me He gave the things upon the earth; to him the things in the heavens.

⁴ As the heaven is higher than the earth, so is the priesthood of Elohiym higher than the earthly kingdom, unless it falls away through sin from YAHUAHA and is dominated by the earthly kingdom.

⁶ And you shalt be amongst them as the sea.

⁷ For as, on the sea, just and unjust are tossed about, some taken into captivity while some are enriched, so also shall every race of men be in thee: some shall be impoverished, being taken captive, and others grow rich by plundering the possessions of others.

⁸ For the kings shall be as sea-monsters.

⁹ They shall swallow men like fishes: the sons and daughters of freemen shall they enslave; houses, lands, flocks, money shall they plunder:

¹⁰ And with the flesh of many shall they wrongfully feed the ravens and the cranes; and they shall advance in evil in covetousness uplifted, and there shall be false prophets like tempest, and they shall persecute all righteous men.

¹¹ And YAHUAHA shall bring upon them divisions one against another.

¹² And there shall be continual wars in Yashar'el; and among men of another race shall my kingdom be brought to an end, until the salvation of Yashar'el shall come.

¹³ Until the appearing of the Elohiym of righteousness, that Ya'aqov, and all the Goyim may rest in peace.

¹⁴ And He shall guard the might of my kingdom forever; for YAHUAHA aware to me with an oath that He would not destroy the kingdom from my seed forever.

¹⁶ Ye shall make your daughters singing girls and harlots, and ye shall mingle in the abominations of the Goyim.

¹⁷ For which things' sake YAHUAHA shall bring upon you famine and pestilence, death and the sword, beleaguering by enemies, and revilings of friends, the slaughter of children, the rape of wives, the plundering of possessions, the burning of the temple of Elohiym, the laying waste of the land, the enslavement of yourselves among the Goyim.

¹⁸ And they shall make some of you eunuchs for their wives.

¹⁹ Until YAHAUAHA visit you, when with perfect heart ye repent and walk in all His commandments, and He bring you up from captivity among the Goyim.

²⁰ And after these things shall a star arise to you from Ya'aqov in peace,

²¹ And a man shall arise from my seed, like the sun of righteousness,

²² Walking with the sons of men in meekness and righteousness;

²³ And no sin shall be found in him.

²⁴ And the heavens shall be opened unto him, to pour out the spirit, even the blessing of the Holy Father; and He shall pour out the spirit of grace upon you;

²⁵ And ye shall be unto Him sons in truth, and ye shall walk in His commandments first and last.

²⁸ Leviy first, I the second, Yoceph third, Binyamiyn fourth, Shim'on fifth, Yisshakar sixth, and so all in order.

²⁹ And YAHAUAHA blessed Leviy, and the Angel of the Presence, me; the powers of glory, Shim'on; the heaven, Re'uven; the earth, Yisshakar; the sea, Zevulun; the mountains, Yoceph; the tabernacle, Binyamiyn; the luminaries, Dan; Eden, Naphtaliy; the sun, Gad; the moon, Asher.

³⁰ And ye shall be the people of YAHAUAHA and have one tongue; and there shall be there no spirit of deceit of Beliar, for he shall be cast into the fire forever.

³¹ And they who have died in grief shall arise in joy, and they who were poor for YAHAUAHA's sake shall be made rich, and they who are put to death for YAHAUAHA's sake shall awake to life.

³² And the hearts of Ya'aqov shall run in joyfulness, and the eagles of Yashar'el shall fly in gladness; and all the people shall glorify YAHUAHA forever.

³³ Observe, therefore, my children, all the Torah of YAHUAHA, for there is hope for all them who hold fast unto, His ways.

³⁴ And he said to them: Behold, I die before your eyes this day, a hundred and nineteen years old.

³⁵ Let no one bury me in costly apparel, nor tear open my bowels, for this shall they who are kings do; and carry me up to Hebron with you.

³⁶ And Yahudah, when he had said these things, fell asleep; and his sons did according to all whatsoever he commanded them, and they buried him in Hebron, with his fathers.

The Testament of Yisshakar

The Fifth Son of Ya'aqov and Le'ah.

Yisshakar, the fifth son of Ya'aqov and Le'ah. The sinless child of hire for mandrakes. He appeals for simplicity.

1 The copy of the words of Yisshakar.

2 For he called his sons and said to them: Hearken, my children, to Yisshakar your father; give ear to the words of him who is beloved of YAHUAHA.

3 I was born the fifth son to Ya'aqov, by way of hire for the mandrakes.

4 For Re'uven my brother brought in mandrakes from the field, and Rachel met him and took them.

5 And Re'uven wept, and at his voice Le'ah my mother came forth.

6 Now these mandrakes were sweet-smelling apples which were produced in the land of Haran below a ravine of water.

7 And Rachel said: I will not give them to thee, but they shall be to me instead of children.

8 For YAHUAHA hath despised me, and I have not borne children to Ya'aqov.

9 Now there were two apples; and Le'ah said to Rachel: Let it suffice thee that you hast taken my husband: wilt you take these also?

10 And Rachel said to her: Thou shalt have Ya'aqov this night for the mandrakes of thy son,

11 And Le'ah said to her: Ya'aqov is mine, for I am the wife of his youth.

12 But Rachel said: Boast not, and vaunt not thyself; for he espoused me before thee, and for my sake he served our father fourteen years.

¹³ And had not craft increased on the earth and the wickedness of men prospered, you wouldst not now see the face of Ya'aqov.

¹⁴ For you are not his wife, but in craft wert taken to him in my stead.

¹⁵ And my father deceived me, and removed me on that night, and did not suffer Ya'aqov to see me; for had I been there, this had not happened to him.

¹⁶ Nevertheless, for the mandrakes I am hiring Ya'aqov to thee for one night.

¹⁷ And Ya'aqov knew Le'ah, and she conceived and bare me, and on account of the hire I was called Yisshakar.

¹⁸ Then appeared to Ya'aqov an angel of YAHUAHA, saying: Two children shall Rachel bear, inasmuch as she hath refused company with her husband, and hath chosen continency.

¹⁹ And had not Le'ah my mother paid the two apples for the sake of his company, she would have borne eight sons; for this reason she bare six, and Rachel bare the two: for on account of the mandrakes YAHUAHA visited her.

²⁰ For He knew that for the sake of children she wished to company with Ya'aqov, and not for lust of pleasure.

²¹ For on the morrow also she again gave up Ya'aqov.

²² Because of the mandrakes, therefore, YAHUAHA hearkened to Rachel.

²³ For though she desired them, she cat them not, but offered them in the house of YAHUAHA, presenting them to the priest of the Most-High who was at that time.

²⁴ When, therefore, I grew up, my children, I walked in uprightness of heart, and I became a husbandman for my father and my brethren, and I brought in fruits from the field according to their season.

²⁵ And my father blessed me, for he saw that I walked in rectitude before him.

²⁶ And I was not a busybody in my doings, nor envious and malicious against my neighbor.

²⁷ I never slandered anyone, nor did I censure the life of any man, walking as I did in singleness of eye.

²⁸ Therefore, when I was thirty-five years old, I took to myself a wife, for my labor wore away my strength, and I never thought upon pleasure with women; but owing to my toil, sleep overcame me.

²⁹ And my father always rejoiced in my rectitude, because I offered through the priest to YAHAUAHA all first-fruits; then to my father also.

³⁰ And YAHAUAHA increased ten thousandfold His benefits in my hands; and also, Ya'aqov, my father, knew that Elohiym aided my singleness.

³¹ For on all the poor and oppressed I bestowed the good things of the earth in the singleness of my heart.

³² And now, hearken to me, my children, and walk in singleness of your heart, for I have seen in it all that is well-pleasing to YAHAUAHA. ‘

³³ The single-minded man covets not gold, he overreaches not his neighbor, he longs not after manifold dainties, he delights not in varied apparel.

³⁴ He doth not desire to live a long life, but only wait for the will of Elohiym.

³⁵ And the spirits of deceit have no power against him, for he look not on the beauty of women, lest he should pollute his mind with corruption.

³⁶ There is no envy in his thoughts, no malicious person maketh his soul to pine away, nor worry with insatiable desire in his mind.

³⁹ Bow down your back unto husbandry, and toil in labors in all manner of husbandry, offering gifts to YAHAUAHA with thanksgiving.

⁴⁰ For with the first fruits of the earth will YAHAUAHA bless you, even as He blessed all the saints from Abel even until now.

⁴¹ For no other portion is given to you than of the fatness of the earth, whose fruits are raised by toil.

⁴² For our father Ya'aqov blessed me with blessings of the earth and of first fruits.

⁴³ And Leviy and Yahudah were glorified by YAHUAHA even among the sons of Ya'aqov; for YAHUAHA gave them an inheritance, and to Leviy He gave the priesthood, and to Yahudah the kingdom.

⁴⁴ And do ye therefore obey them, and walk in the singleness of your father; for unto Gad hath it been given to destroy the troops that are coming upon Yashar'el.

2 Know ye therefore, my children, that in the last times your sons will forsake singleness, and will cleave unto insatiable desire.

² And leaving guilelessness, will draw near to malice; and forsaking the commandments of YAHUAHA, they will cleave unto Beliar.

³ And leaving husbandry, they will follow after their own wicked devices, and they shall be dispersed among the Goyim, and shall serve their enemies.

⁴ And do you therefore give these commands to your children, that, if they sin, they may the more quickly return to YAHUAHA; For He is merciful, and will deliver them, even to bring them back into their land.

⁵ Behold, therefore, as ye see, I am a hundred and twenty-six years old and am not conscious of committing any sin.

⁶ Except my wife I have not known any woman. I never committed fornication by the uplifting of my eyes.

⁷ I drank not wine, to be led astray thereby;

⁸ I coveted not any desirable thing that was my neighbor's.

⁹ Guile arose not in my heart;

¹⁰ A lie passed not through my lips.

¹¹ If any man were in distress I joined my sighs with his,

¹² And I shared my bread with the poor.

¹³ I wrought Godliness, all my days I kept truth.

¹⁴ I loved YAHUAHA, likewise also every man with all my heart.

¹⁵ So do you also these things, my children, and every spirit of Beliar shall flee from you, and no deed of wicked men shall rule over you;

¹⁶ And every wild beast shall ye subdue, since you have with you the Elohiym of heaven and earth and walk with men in singleness of heart.

¹⁷ And having said these things, he commanded his sons that they should carry him up to Hebron, and bury him there in the cave with his fathers.

¹⁸ And he stretched out his feet and died, at a good old age; with every limb sound, and with strength unabated, he slept the eternal sleep.

The Testament of Zevulun

The Sixth Son of Ya'aqov and Le'ab.

Zevulun, the sixth son of Ya'aqov and Le'ab. The inventor and philanthropist., What he learned as a result of the plot against Yoceph.

¹ The copy of the words of Zevulun, which he enjoined on his sons before he died in the hundred and fourteenth year of his life, two years after the death of Yoceph.

² And he said to them: Hearken to me, ye sons of Zevulun attend to the words of your father.

³ I, Zevulun, was born a good gift to my parents.

⁴ For when I was born my father increased very exceedingly, both in flocks and herds, when with the straked rods he had his portion.

⁵ I am not conscious that I have sinned all my days, save in thought.

⁶ Nor yet do I remember that I have done any iniquity, except the sin of ignorance which I committed against Yoceph; for I covenanted with my brethren not to tell my father what had been done.

⁷ But I wept in secret many days on account of Yoceph, for I feared my brethren, because they had all agreed that if anyone should declare the secret, he should be slain.

⁸ But when they wished to kill him, I adjured them much with tears not to be guilty of this sin.

⁹ For Shim'on and Gad came against Yoceph to kill him, and he said unto them with tears: Pity me, my brethren, have mercy upon the bowels of Ya'aqov our father: lay not upon me your hands to shed innocent blood, for I have not sinned against you.

¹⁰ And if indeed I have sinned, with chastening chastise me, my brethren, but lay not upon me your hand, for the sake of Ya'aqov our father,

¹¹ And as he spoke these words, wailing as he did so, I was unable to bear his lamentations, and began to weep, and my liver was poured out, and all the substance of my bowels was loosened.

¹² And I wept with Yoceph, and my heart sounded, and the joints of my body trembled, and I was not able to stand.

¹³ And when Yoceph saw me weeping with him, and them coming against him to slay him, he fled behind me, beseeching them.

¹⁴ But meanwhile Re'uven arose and said: Come, my brethren, let us not slay him, but let us cast him into one of these dry pits, which our fathers dug and found no water.

¹⁵ For this cause YAHUAHA forbade that water should rise up in them in order that Yoceph should be preserved.

¹⁶ And they did so, until they sold him to the Yishma'elites.

¹⁷ For in his price I had no share, my children.

¹⁸ But Shim'on and Gad and six other of our brethren took the price of Yoceph, and bought sandals for themselves, and their wives, and their children, saying:

¹⁹ We will not eat of it, for it is the price of our brother's blood, but we will assuredly tread it under foot, because he said that he would be king over us, and so let us see what will become of his dreams.

²¹ And the brethren of Yoceph wished not that their brother should live, and YAHUAHA loosed from them the sandal which they wore against Yoceph their brother.

²² For when they came into Mitsrayim they were unloosed by the servants of Yoceph outside the gate, and so they made obeisance to Yoceph after the fashion of King Pharaoh.

²³ And not only did they make obeisance to him, but were spit upon also, falling down before him forthwith, and so they were put to shame before the Mitsrayimians.

²⁴ For after this the Mitsrayimians heard all the evils that they had done to Yoceph.

- ²⁵ And after he was sold my brothers sat down to eat and drink.
- ²⁶ But I, through pity for Yoceph, did not eat, but watched the pit, since Yahudah feared lest Shim'on, Dan, and Gad should rush off and slay him.
- ²⁷ But when they saw that I did not eat, they set me to watch him, till he was sold to the Yishma'elites.
- ²⁸ And when Re'uven came and heard that while he was away Yoceph had been sold, he rent his garments, and mourning, said:
- ²⁹ How shall I look on the face of my father Ya'aqov? And he took the money and ran after the merchants but as he failed to find them he returned grieving.
- ³⁰ But the merchants had left the broad road and marched through the Troglodytes by a short cut.
- ³¹ But Re'uven was grieved and ate no food that day.
- ³² Dan therefore came to him and said: Weep not, neither grieve; for we have found what we can say to our father Ya'aqov.
- ³³ Let us slay a kid of the goats, and dip in it the coat of Yoceph; and let us send it to Ya'aqov, saying: Know, is this the coat of thy son?
- ³⁴ And they did so. For they stripped off from Yoceph his coat when they were selling him and put upon him the garment of a slave.
- ³⁵ Now Shim'on took the coat, and would not give it up, for he wished to rend it with his sword, as he was angry that Yoceph lived and that he had not slain him.
- ³⁶ Then we all rose up and said unto him: If you give not up the coat, we will say to our father that you alone didst this evil thing in Yashar'el.
- ³⁷ And so he gave it unto them, and they did even as Dan had said.

He urges human sympathy and understanding of one's fellow men.

2 And now children, I bid you to keep the commands of YAHUAHA, and to show mercy to your neighbors, and to have compassion towards all, not towards men only, but also towards beasts.

² For all this thing's sake YAHUAHA blessed me, and when all my brethren were sick, I escaped without sickness, for YAHUAHA knows the purposes of each.

³ Have, therefore, compassion in your hearts, my children, because even as a man doeth to his neighbor, even so also will YAHUAHA do to him.

⁴ For the sons of my brethren were sickening and were dying on account of Yoceph, because they showed not mercy in their hearts; but my sons were preserved without sickness, as ye know.

⁵ And when I was in the land of Canaan, by the seacoast, I made a catch of fish for Ya'aqov my father; and when many were choked in the sea, I continued unhurt.

⁶ I was the first to make a boat to sail upon the sea, for YAHUAHA gave me understanding and wisdom therein.

⁷ And I let down a rudder behind it, and I stretched a sail upon another upright piece of wood in the midst.

⁸ And I sailed therein along the shores, catching fish for the house of my father until we came to Mitsrayim.

⁹ And through compassion I shared my catch with every stranger.

¹⁰ And if a man were a stranger, or sick, or aged, I boiled the fish, and dressed them well, and offered them to all men, as every man had need, grieving with and having compassion upon them.

¹¹ Wherefore also YAHUAHA satisfied me with abundance of fish when catching fish; for he that shares with his neighbor receives manifold more from YAHUAHA.

¹² For five years I caught fish and gave thereof to every man whom I saw and sufficed for all the house of my father.

¹³ And in the summer I caught fish, and in the winter I kept sheep with my brethren.

¹⁴ Now I will declare unto you what I did.

¹⁵ I saw a man in distress through nakedness in wintertime, and had compassion upon him, and stole away a garment secretly from my father's house and gave it to him who was in distress.

¹⁷ And if ye have not the wherewithal to give to him that needs, have compassion for him in bowels of mercy.

¹⁸ I know that my hand found not the wherewithal to give to him that needed, and I walked with him weeping for seven furlongs, and my bowels yearned towards him in compassion.

¹⁹ Have, therefore, yourselves also, my children, compassion towards every man with mercy, that YAHUAHA also may have compassion and mercy upon you.

²⁰ Because also in, the last days Elohiym will send His compassion on the earth, and wheresoever He finds bowels of mercy He dwelleth in him.

²¹ For in the degree in which a man hath compassion upon his neighbors, in the same degree hath YAHUAHA also upon him.

²² And when we went down into Mitsrayim, Yoceph bore no malice against us.

²³ To whom taking heed, do ye also, my children, approve yourselves without malice, and love one another; and do not set down in account, each one of you, evil against his brother.

²⁴ For this breaks unity and divides all kindred, and troubles the soul, and wears away the countenance.

²⁵ Observe, therefore, the waters, and know when they flow together, they sweep along stones, trees, earth, and other things.

²⁶ But if they are divided into many streams, the earth swallows them up, and they vanish away.

²⁷ So shall ye also be if ye be divided. Be not Ye, therefore, divided into two heads for everything which YAHUAHA made hath but one head, and two shoulders, two hands, two feet, and all the remaining members.

²⁹ And your enemies shall lead you captive, and ye shall be evil entreated among the Goyim, with many infirmities and tribulations.

³⁰ And after these things ye shall remember YAHUAHA and repent, and He shall have mercy upon you, for He is merciful and compassionate.

³¹ And He set not down in account evil against the sons of men, because they are flesh, and are deceived through their own wicked deeds.

³² And after these things shall there arise unto you YAHUAHA Himself, the light of righteousness, and ye shall return unto your land.

³³ And ye shall see Him in Yerushalayim, for His name's sake.

³⁴ And again through the wickedness of your works shall ye provoke Him to anger,

³⁵ And ye shall be cast away by Him unto the time of consummation.

³⁶ And now, my children, grieve not that I am dying, nor be cast down in that I am coming to my end.

³⁸ But upon the unrighteous shall YAHUAHA bring eternal fire, and destroy them throughout all generations.

³⁹ But I am now hastening away to my rest, as did also my fathers.

⁴⁰ But do ye fear YAHUAHA our Elohiym with all your strength all the days of your life.

⁴¹ And when he had said these things he fell asleep, at a good old age.

⁴² And his sons laid him in a wooden coffin. And afterwards they carried him up and buried him in Hebron, with his fathers.

The Testament of Dan

The Seventh Son of Ya'aqov and Bilhab.

The seventh son of Ya'aqov and Bilhab. The jealous one. He counsels against anger saying that "it giveth peculiar vision." This is a notable thesis on anger.

1 The copy of the words of Dan, which he spoke to his sons in his last days, in the hundred and twenty-fifth year of his life.

² For he called together his I family, and said: Hearken to my words, ye sons of Dan; and give heed to the words of your father.

³ I have proved in my heart, and in my whole life, that truth with just dealing is good and well pleasing to Elohiym, and that lying and anger are evil, because they teach man all wickedness.

⁴ I confess, therefore, this day to you, my children, that in my heart I resolved on the death of Yoceph my brother, the true and good man.

⁵ And I rejoiced that he was sold, because his father loved him more than us.

⁶ For the spirit of jealousy and vainglory said to me: Thou thyself also are his son.

⁸ Now this is the spirit of anger that persuaded me to crush Yoceph as a leopard crushes a kid.

⁹ But the Elohiym of my fathers did not suffer him to fall into my hands, so that I should find him alone and slay him and cause a second tribe to be destroyed in Yashar'el.

¹⁰ And now, my children, behold I am dying, and I tell you of a truth, that unless ye keep yourselves from the spirit of lying and of anger, and love truth and longsuffering, ye shall perish.

¹¹ For anger is blindness and does not suffer one to see the face of any man with truth.

¹² For though it be a father or a mother, he behaves towards them as enemies; though it be a brother, he knows him not; though it be a prophet of YAHUAHA, he disobeys him; though a righteous man, he regards him not; though a friend, he doth not acknowledge him.

¹³ For the spirit of anger encompasses him with the net of deceit, and blinds his eyes, and through lying darkens his mind, and giveth him its own peculiar vision.

¹⁴ And wherewith encompasses it his eyes? With hatred of heart, so as to be envious of his brother.

¹⁵ For anger is an evil thing, my children, for it troubles even the soul itself.

¹⁶ And the body of the angry man it maketh its own, and over his soul it gets the mastery, and it bestows upon the body power that it may work all iniquity.

¹⁷ And when the body does all these things, the soul justifies what is done, since it sees not aright.

¹⁹ And though the wrathful man be weak, yet hath he a power twofold of that which is by nature; for wrath ever aides such in lawlessness.

²⁰ This spirit goeth always with lying at the right hand of Satan, that with cruelty and lying his works may be wrought.

²¹ Understand ye, therefore, the power of wrath, that it is vain.

²² For it first of all giveth provocation by word; then by deeds it strengthens him who is angry, and with sharp losses disturbs his mind, and so stirs up with great wrath his soul.

²³ Therefore, when anyone speaks against you, be not ye moved to anger, and if any man praises you as holy men, be not uplifted: be not moved either to delight or to disgust.

²⁴ For first it pleases the hearing, and so maketh the mind keen to perceive the grounds for provocation; and then being enraged, he thinketh that he is justly angry.

²⁵ If ye fall into any loss or ruin, my children, be not afflicted; for this very spirit maketh a man desire that which is perishable, in order that he may be enraged through the affliction.

²⁶ And if ye suffer loss voluntarily, or involuntarily, be not vexed; for from vexation arises wrath with lying.

A prophecy of the sins, captivity, plagues, and ultimate restitution of the nation. They still talk of Eden (See Verse 18). Verse 23 is remarkable in the light of prophecy.

2 Observe, therefore, my children, the commandments of YAHUAHA, and keep His law; depart from wrath, and hate lying, that YAHUAHA may dwell among you, and Beliar may flee from you.

² Speak truth each one with his neighbor. So shall ye not fall into wrath and confusion; but ye shall be in peace, having the Elohiym of peace, so shall no war prevail over you.

³ Love YAHUAHA through all your life, and one another with a true heart.

⁴ I know that in the last days ye shall depart from YAHUAHA, and ye shall provoke Leviy unto anger, and fight against Yahudah; but ye shall not prevail against them, for an angel of YAHUAHA shall guide them both; for by them shall Yashar'el stand.

⁶ For I have read in the book of Chanok, the righteous, that your prince is Satan, and that all the spirits of wickedness and pride will conspire to attend constantly on the sons of Leviy, to cause them to sin before YAHUAHA.

⁷ And my sons will draw near to Leviy, and sin with them in all things; and the sons of Yahudah will be covetous, plundering other men's goods like lions.

⁸ Therefore shall ye be led away with them into captivity, and there shall ye receive all the plagues of Mitsrayim, and all the evils of the Goyim.

⁹ And so when ye return to YAHAUAHA ye shall obtain mercy, and He shall bring you into His sanctuary, and He shall give you peace.

¹⁰ And there shall arise unto you from the tribe of Yahudah and of Leviy the salvation of YAHAUAHA; and he shall make war against Beliar.

¹¹ And execute an everlasting vengeance on our enemies; and the captivity shall he take from Beliar the souls of the saints, and turn disobedient hearts unto YAHAUAHA, and give to them that call upon him eternal peace.

¹² And the saints shall rest in Eden, and in the New Yerushalayim shall the righteous rejoice, and it shall be unto the glory of Elohiym forever.

¹⁴ And now, fear YAHAUAHA, my children, and beware of Satan and his spirits.

¹⁵ Draw near unto Elohiym and unto the angel that intercede for you, for he is a mediator between Elohiym and man, and for the peace of Yashar'el he shall stand up against the kingdom of the enemy.

¹⁶ Therefore is the enemy eager to destroy all that call upon YAHAUAHA.

¹⁷ For he knows that upon the day on which Yashar'el shall repent, the kingdom of the enemy shall be brought to an end.

¹⁸ For the very angel of peace shall strengthen Yashar'el, that it fall not into the extremity of evil.

¹⁹ And it shall be in the time of the lawlessness of Yashar'el, that YAHAUAHA will not depart from them, but will transform them into a nation that doeth His will, for none of the angels will be equal unto him.

²⁰ And His name shall be in every place in Yashar'el, and among the Goyim.

²¹ Keep, therefore, yourselves, my children, from every evil work, and cast away wrath and all lying, and love truth and long-suffering.

²² And the things which ye have heard from your father, do ye also impart to your children that the Savior of the Goyim may receive you; for he is true and long-suffering, meek and lowly, and teaches by his works the law of Elohiym.

²³ Depart, therefore, from all unrighteousness, and cleave unto the righteousness of Elohiym, and your race will be saved forever.

²⁴ And bury me near my fathers.

²⁵ And when he had said these things, he kissed them and fell asleep at a good old age.

²⁶ And his sons buried him, and after that they carried up his bones, and placed them near Avraham, and Yitschaq, and Ya'aqov.

²⁷ Nevertheless, Dan prophesied unto them that they should forget their Elohiym and should be alienated from the land of their inheritance and from the race of Yashar'el, and from the family of their seed.

The Testament of Naphtaliy

The Eighth Son of Ya'aqov and Bilhah.

Naphtaliy, the eighth son of Ya'aqov and Bilhah. The Runner. A lesson in physiology.

¹ The copy of the testament of Naphtaliy, which he ordained at the time of his death in the hundred and thirtieth year of his life.

² When his sons were gathered together in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, while still in good health, he made them a feast of food and wine.

³ And after he was awake in the morning, he said to them, I am dying; and they believed him not.

⁴ And as he glorified YAHUAHA, he grew strong and said that after yesterday's feast he should die.

⁵ And he began then to say: Hear, my children, ye sons of Naphtaliy, hear the words of your father.

⁶ I was born from Bilhah, and because Rachel dealt craftly, and gave Bilhah in place of herself to Ya'aqov, and she conceived and bare me upon Rachel's knees, therefore she called my name Naphtaliy.

⁷ For Rachel loved me very much because I was born upon her lap; and when I was still young, she was wont to kiss me, and say: May I have a brother of thine from mine own womb, like unto thee.

⁸ Whence also Yoceph was like unto me in all things, according to the prayers of Rachel.

⁹ Now my mother was Bilhah, daughter of Rotheus the brother of Deborah, Rivqah's nurse, who was born on one and the self-same day with Rachel.

¹⁰ And Rotheus was of the family of Avraham, a Chaldean, Elohiym-fearing, free-born, and noble.

¹¹ And he was taken captive and was bought by Lavan; and he gave him Euna his handmaid to wife, and she bore a daughter, and called her name Zilpah, after the name of the village in which he had been taken captive.

¹² And next she bore Bilhah, saying: My daughter hastens after what is new, for immediately that she was born she seized the breast and hastened to suck it.

¹³ And I was swift on my feet like the deer, and my father Ya'aqov appointed me for all messages, and as a deer did he give me his blessing.

¹⁴ For as the potter knows the vessel, how much it is to contain, and bringeth clay accordingly, so also doth YAHUAHA make the body after the likeness of the spirit, and according to the capacity of the body doth He implant the spirit.

¹⁵ And the one does not fall short of the other by a third part of a hair; for by weight, and measure, and rule was all the creation made.

¹⁶ And as the potter knows the use of each vessel, what it is meet for, so also doth YAHUAHA know the body, how far it will persist in goodness, and when it begins in evil.

¹⁷ For there is no inclination or thought which YAHUAHA knows not, for He created every man after His own image.

¹⁸ For as a man's strength, so also in his work; as his eye, so also in his sleep; as his soul, so also in his word either in the law of YAHUAHA or in the law of Beliar.

¹⁹ And as there is a division between light and darkness, between seeing and hearing, so also is there a division between man and man, and between woman and woman; and it is not to be said that the one is like the other either in face or in mind.

²⁰ For Elohiym made all things good in their order, the five senses in the head, and He joined on the neck to the head, adding to it the hair also for comeliness and glory, then the heart for understanding, the belly for excrement, and the stomach for grinding, the windpipe for taking in the breath, the liver for wrath, the gall for bitterness, the spleen for laughter, the reins for prudence, the muscles of the loins for power, the lungs for drawing in, the loins for strength, and so forth.

²¹ So then, my children, let all your works be done in order with good intent in the fear of Elohiym, and do nothing disorderly in scorn or out of its due season.

²² For if you bid the eye to hear, it cannot; so neither while ye are in darkness can ye do the works of light.

²³ Be ye, therefore, not eager to corrupt your doings through covetousness or with vain words to beguile your souls; because if ye keep silence in purity of heart, ye shall understand how to hold fast the will of Elohiym, and to cast away the will of Beliar.

²⁴ Sun and moon and stars, change not their order; so do ye also change not the law of Elohiym in the disorderliness of your doings.

²⁵ The Goyim went astray, and forsook YAHUAHA, and charged their order, and obeyed stocks and stones, spirits of deceit.

²⁶ But ye shall not be so, my children, recognizing in the firmament, in the earth, and in the sea, and in all created things, YAHUAHA who made all things, that ye become not as Cedom, which changed the order of nature.

²⁷ In like manner the Watchers also changed the order of their nature, whom YAHUAHA cursed at the flood, on whose account He made the earth without inhabitants and fruitless.

²⁸ These things I say unto you, my children, for I have read in the writing of Chanok that ye yourselves also shall depart from YAHUAHA, walking according to all the lawlessness of the Goyim, and ye shall do according to all the wickedness of Cedom.

²⁹ And YAHUAHA shall bring captivity upon you, and there shall ye serve your enemies, and ye shall be bowed down with every affliction and tribulation, until YAHUAHA have consumed you all.

³⁰ And after ye have become diminished and made few, ye return and acknowledge YAHUAHA your Elohiym; and He shall bring you back into your land, according to His abundant mercy.

³¹ And it shall be, that after that they come into the land of their fathers, they shall again forget YAHUAHA and become unrighteous.

³² And YAHUAHA shall scatter them upon the face of all the earth, until the compassion of YAHUAHA shall come, a man working righteousness and working mercy unto all them that are afar off, and to them that are near.

He makes a plea for orderly living.

2 For in the fortieth year of my life, I saw a vision on the Mount of Olives, on the east of Yerushalayim, that the sun and the moon were standing still.

² And behold Yitschaq, the father of my father, said to us; Run and lay hold of them, each one according to his strength; and to him that seizes them will the sun and moon belong.

³ And we all of us ran together, and Leviy laid hold of the sun, and Yahudah outstripped the others and seized the moon, and they were both of them lifted up with them.

⁴ And when Leviy became as a sun, lo, a certain young man gave to him twelve branches of palm; and Yahudah was bright as the moon, and under their feet were twelve rays.

⁵ And the two, Leviy and Yahudah, ran, and laid hold of them.

⁶ And lo, a bull upon the earth, with two great horns, and an eagle's wings upon its back; and we wished to seize him but could not.

⁷ But Yoceph came, and seized him, and ascended up with him on high.

⁸ And I saw, for I was there, and behold a holy writing appeared to us, saying: Assyrians, Medes, Persians, Chaldeans, Syrians, shall possess in captivity the twelve tribes of Yashar'el.

⁹ And again, after seven days, I saw our father Ya'aqov standing by the sea of Jamnia, and we were with him.

¹⁰ And behold, there came a ship sailing by, without sailors or pilot; and there was written upon the ship, The Ship of Ya'aqov.

¹¹ And our father said to us: Come, let us embark on our ship.

¹² And when he had gone on board, there arose a vehement storm, and a mighty tempest of wind; and our father, who was holding the helm, departed from us.

¹³ And we, being tossed with the tempest, were borne along over the sea; and the ship was filled with water, and was pounded by mighty waves, until it was broken up.

¹⁴ And Yoceph fled away upon a little boat, and we were all divided upon nine planks, and Leviy and Yahudah were together.

¹⁵ And we were all scattered unto the ends of the earth.

¹⁶ Then Leviy, girt about with sackcloth, prayed for us all unto YAHUAHA.

¹⁷ And when the storm ceased, the ship reached the land as it were in peace.

¹⁸ And, lo, our father came, and we all rejoiced with one accord.

¹⁹ These two dreams I told to my father; and he said to me: These things must be fulfilled in their season, after that Yashar'el hath endured many things.

²⁰ Then my father saith unto me: I believe Elohiym that Yoceph lives, for I see always that YAHUAHA numbers him with you.

²¹ And he said, weeping: Ah me, my son Yoceph, you live, though I behold thee not, and you see not Ya'aqov that begat thee.

²² He caused me also, therefore, to weep by these words, and I burned in my heart to declare that Yoceph had been sold, but I feared my brethren.

²³ And lo! my children, I have shown unto you the last times, how everything shall come to pass in Yashar'el.

²⁴ Do ye also, therefore, charge your children that they be united to Leviy and to Yahudah; for through them shall salvation arise unto Yashar'el, and in them shall Ya'aqov be blessed.

²⁵ For through their tribes shall Elohiym appear dwelling among men on earth, to save the race of Yashar'el, and to gather together the righteous from amongst the Goyim.

²⁶ If ye work that which is good, my children, both men and angels shall bless you; and Elohiym shall be glorified among the Goyim through you, and the devil shall flee from you, and the wild beasts shall fear you, and YAHUAHA shall love you, and the angels shall cleave to you.

²⁷ As a man who has trained a child well is kept in kindly remembrance; so also, for a good work there is a good remembrance before Elohiym.

²⁸ But him that doeth not that which is good, both angels and men shall curse, and Elohiym shall be dishonored among the Goyim through him, and the devil shall make him as his own peculiar instrument, and every wild beast shall master him, and YAHUAHA shall hate him.

²⁹ For the commandments of the law are twofold, and through prudence must they be fulfilled.

³⁰ For there is a season for a man to embrace his wife, and a season to abstain therefrom for his prayer.

³¹ So, then, there are two commandments; and, unless they be done in due order, they bring very great sin upon men.

³² So also is it with the other commandments.

³³ Be ye therefore wise in Elohiym, my children, and prudent, understanding the order of His commandments, and the laws of every word, that YAHUAHA may love you,

³⁴ And when he had charged them with many such words, he exhorted them that they should remove his bones to Hebron, and that they should bury him with his fathers.

³⁵ And when he had eaten and drunken with a merry heart, he covered his face and died.

³⁶ And his sons did according to all that Naphtaliy their Father had commanded them.

The Testament of Gad

The Ninth Son of Ya'aqov and Zilpah.

Gad, the ninth son of Ya'aqov and Zilpah. Shepherd and strong man but a murderer at heart. Verse 25 is a notable definition of hatred.

¹ The copy of the testament of Gad, what things he spoke unto his sons, in the hundred and twenty-fifth year of his life, saying unto them:

² Hearken, my children, I was the ninth son born to Ya'aqov, and I was valiant in keeping the flocks.

³ Accordingly I guarded at night the flock; and whenever the lion came, or the wolf, or any wild beast against the fold, I pursued it, and overtaking it I seized its foot with my hand and hurled it about a stone's throw, and so killed it.

⁴ Now Yoceph my brother was feeding the flock with us for upwards of thirty days, and being young, he fell sick by reason of the heat.

⁵ And he returned to Hebron to our father, who made him lie down near him, because he loved him greatly.

⁶ And Yoceph told our father that the sons of Zilpah and Bilhah were slaying the best of the flock and eating them against the judgement of Re'uven and Yahudah.

⁷ For he saw that I had delivered a lamb out of the mouth of a bear and put the bear to death; but had slain the lamb, being grieved concerning it that it could not live, and that we had eaten it.

⁸ And regarding this matter I was wroth with Yoceph until the day that he was sold.

⁹ And the spirit of hatred was in me, and I wished not either to hear of Yoceph with the ears, or see him with the eyes, because he rebuked us to our faces saying that we were eating of the flock without Yahudah.

¹⁰ For whatsoever things he told our father, he believed him.

¹¹ I confess now, my gin, my children, that oftentimes I wished to kill him, because I hated him from my heart.

¹² Moreover, I hated him yet more for his dreams; and I wished to lick him out of the land of the living, even as an ox licks up the grass of the field.

¹³ And Yahudah sold him secretly to the Yishma'elites.

¹⁴ Thus the Elohiym of our fathers delivered him from our hands, that we should not work great lawlessness in Yashar'el.

¹⁵ And now, my children, hearken to the words of truth to work righteousness, and all the law of the Most-High, and go not astray through the spirit of hatred, for it is evil in all the doings of men.

¹⁶ Whatsoever a man doeth the hater abominates him: and though a man worketh the law of YAHUAHA, he praises him not; though a man fears YAHUAHA, and taketh pleasure in that which is righteous, he loveth him not.

¹⁷ He dispraises the truth, he envies him that prospers, he welcomes evil speaking, he loveth arrogance, for hatred blinds his soul as I also then looked on Yoceph.

¹⁸ Beware, therefore, my children of hatred, for it worketh lawlessness even against YAHUAHA Himself.

¹⁹ For it will not hear the words of His commandments concerning the loving of one's-neighbor, and it sins against Elohiym.

²⁰ For if a brother stumble, it delights immediately to proclaim it to all men, and is urgent that he should be judged for it, and be punished and be put to death.

²¹ And if it be a servant, it stirs him up against his master, and with every affliction it devises against him, if possibly he can be put to death.

²² For hatred worketh with envy also against them that prosper: so long as it heareth of or sees their success it always languishes.

²³ For as love would quicken even the dead and would call back them that are condemned to die, so hatred would slay the living, and those that had sinned venially it would not suffer to live.

²⁴ For the spirit of hatred worketh together with Satan, through hastiness of spirits, in all things to men's death; but the spirit of love worketh together with the law of Elohiym in long-suffering unto the salvation of men.

²⁵ Hatred, therefore, is evil, for it constantly mates with lying, speaking against the truth; and it maketh small things to be great, and causes the light to be darkness, and calleth the sweet bitter, and teaches slander, and kindles wrath, and stirs up war, and violence and all covetousness; it fills the heart with evils and devilish poison.

²⁶ These things, therefore, I say to you from experience, my children, that ye may drive forth hatred, which is of the devil, and cleave to the love of Elohiym.

²⁷ Righteousness casts out hatred, humility destroys envy.

²⁸ For he that is just and humble is ashamed to do what is unjust, being reproved not of another, but of his own heart, because YAHUAHA looks on his inclination.

²⁹ He speaks not against a holy man, because the fear of Elohiym overcomes hatred.

³⁰ For fearing lest he should offend YAHUAHA, he will not do wrong to any man, even in thought.

³¹ These things I learnt at last, after I had repented concerning Yoceph.

³² For true repentance after a righteous sort destroys ignorance, and drives away the darkness, and enlightens the eyes, and giveth knowledge to the soul, and leadeth the mind to salvation.

³³ And those things which it hath not learnt from man, it knows through repentance.

³⁴ For Elohiym brought upon me a disease of the liver; and had not the prayers of Ya'aqov my father succors me, it had hardly failed but my spirit had departed.

³⁵ For by what things a man transgresseth by the same also is he punished.

³⁶ Since, therefore, my liver was set mercilessly against Yoceph, in my liver too I suffered mercilessly, and was judged for eleven months, for so long a time as I had been angry against Yoceph.

Gad exhorts his listeners against hatred showing how it has brought him into so much trouble. Verses 8-11 are memorable.

2 And now, my children, I exhort you, love ye each one his brother, and put away hatred from your hearts, love one another in deed, and in word, and in the inclination of the soul.

² For in the presence of my father I spoke peaceably to Yoceph; and when I had gone out, the spirit of hatred darkened my mind, and stirred up my soul to slay him.

³ Love ye one another from the heart; and if a man sin against thee, speak peaceably to him, and in thy soul hold not guile; and if he repent and confess, forgive him.

⁴ But if he deny it, do not get into a passion with him, lest catching the poison from thee he take to swearing and so you sin doubly.

⁵ Let not another man hear thy secrets when engaged in legal strife, lest he come to hate thee and become thy enemy and commit a great sin against thee; for oftentimes he addresses thee guilefully or busies himself about thee with wicked intent.

⁶ And though he deny it and yet have a sense of shame when reproved, give over reproving him.

⁷ For he who denies may repent so as not again to wrong thee; yea, he may also honor thee, and fear and be at peace with thee.

⁸ And if he be shameless and persist in his wrong doing, even so forgive him from the heart, and leave to Elohiym the avenging.

⁹ If a man prospers more than you, do not be vexed, but pray also for him, that he may have perfect prosperity.

¹⁰ for so it is expedient for you.

¹¹ And if he be further exalted, be not envious of him, remembering that all flesh shall die; and offer praise to Elohiym, who giveth things good and profitable to all men.

¹² Seek out the judgments of YAHUAHA, and thy mind will rest and be at peace.

¹³ And though a man become rich by evil means, even as Esau, the brother of my father, be not jealous; but wait for the end of YAHUAHA.

¹⁴ For if he taketh away from a man wealth gotten by evil means He forgives him if he repent, but the unrepentant is reserved for eternal punishment.

¹⁵ For the poor man, if free from envy he pleases YAHUAHA in all things, is blessed beyond all men, because he hath not the travail of vain men.

¹⁶ Put away, therefore, jealousy from your souls, and love one another with uprightness of heart.

¹⁷ Do ye also therefore tell these things to your children, that they honor Yahudah and Levy, for from them shall YAHUAHA raise up salvation to Yashar'el.

¹⁸ For I know that at the last your children shall depart from Him, and shall walk in O wickedness, and affliction and corruption before YAHUAHA.

¹⁹ And when he had rested for a little while, he said again; My children, obey your father, and bury me near to my fathers.

²⁰ And he drew up his feet and fell asleep in peace.

²¹ And after five years they carried him up to Hebron, and laid him with his fathers.

The Testament of Asher

The Tenth Son of Ya'aqov and Zilpah.

¹ THE copy of the Testament To Asher, what things he spake to his sons in the hundred and twenty-fifth year of his life.

² For while he was still in health, he said to them: Hearken, ye children of Asher, to your father, and I will declare to you all that is upright in the sight of YAHUAHA.

³ Two ways hath Elohiym given to the sons of men, and two inclinations, and two kinds of action, and two modes of action, and two issues.

⁴ Therefore all things are by twos, one over against the other.

⁵ For there are two ways of good and evil, and with these are the two inclinations in our breasts discriminating them.

⁶ Therefore if the soul take pleasure in the good inclination, all its actions are in righteousness; and if it sin, it straightway repenteth.

⁷ For, having its thoughts set upon righteousness, and casting away wickedness, it straightway overthrows the evil, and uproots the sin.

⁸ But if it incline to the evil inclination, all its actions are in wickedness, and it drives away the good, and cleaves to the evil, and is ruled by Beliar; even though it work what is good, he perverts it to evil.

⁹ For whenever it begins to do good, he forces the issue of the action into evil for him, seeing that the treasure of the inclination is filled with an evil spirit.

¹⁰ A person then may with words help the good for the sake of the evil, yet the issue of the action leadeth to mischief.

¹¹ There is a man who shows no compassion upon him who serves his turn in evil; and this thing bath two aspects, but the whole is evil.

¹² And there is a man that loveth him that worketh evil, because he would prefer even to die in evil for his sake; and concerning this it is clear that it bath two aspects, but the whole is an evil work.

¹³ Though indeed he have love, yet is he wicked who conceals what is evil for the sake of the good name, but the end of the action tends unto evil.

¹⁴ Another steals, doeth unjustly, plunders, defrauds, and withal pitieth the poor: this too bath a twofold aspect, but the whole is evil.

¹⁵ He who defrauds his neighbor provokes Elohiym, and swears falsely against the Most-High, and yet pities the poor: YAHUAHA who commanded the law he sets at nought and provokes, and yet he refreshes the poor.

¹⁶ He defiles the soul, and maketh gay the body; he kills many, and pities a few: this, too, bath a twofold aspect, but the whole is evil.

¹⁷ Another committeth adultery and fornication, and abstains from meats, and when he fasts, he doeth evil, and by the power of his wealth overwhelms many; and notwithstanding his excessive wickedness he doeth the commandments: this, too, hath a twofold aspect, but the whole is evil.

¹⁸ Such men are hares; clean, like those that divide the hoof, but in very deed are unclean.

¹⁹ For Elohiym in the tables of the commandments hath thus declared.

²⁰ But do not ye, my children, wear two faces like unto them, of goodness and of wickedness; but cleave unto goodness only, for Elohiym hath his habitation therein, and men desire it.

²² For good men, even they that are of single face, though they be thought by them that are double-faced to sin, are just before Elohiym.

²³ For many in killing the wicked do two works of good and evil; but the whole is good, because he hath uprooted and destroyed that which is evil.

²⁴ One man hates the merciful and unjust man, and the man who committeth adultery and fasts: this, too, hath a twofold aspect, but the whole work is good, because he follows YAHUAHA's example, in that he accepts not the seeming good as the genuine good.

²⁵ Another desires not to see good day with them that not, lest be defile his body and pollute his soul; this, too, is double-faced, but the whole is good.

²⁶ For such men are like to stags and to hinds, because in the manner of wild animals they seem to be unclean, but they are altogether clean; because they walk in zeal for YAHUAHA and abstain from what Elohiym also hates and forbids by His commandments, warding off the evil from the good.

²⁷ Ye see, my children, how that there are two in all things, one against the other, and the one is hidden by the other: in wealth is hidden covetousness, in conviviality drunkenness, in laughter grief, in wedlock profligacy.

²⁸ Death succeeds to life, dishonor to glory, night today, and darkness to light; and all things are under the day, just things under life, unjust things under death; wherefore also eternal life awaits death.

²⁹ Nor may it be said that truth is a lie, nor right wrong; for all truth is under the light, even as all things are under Elohiym.

³⁰ All these things, therefore, I proved in my life, and I wandered not from the truth of YAHUAHA, and I searched out the commandments of the Most-High, walking according to all my strength with singleness of face unto that which is good.

³¹ Take heed, therefore, ye also, my children, to the commandments of YAHUAHA, following the truth with singleness of face.

³² For they that are double-faced are guilty of a twofold sin; for they both do the evil thing, and they have pleasure in them that do it, following the example of the spirits of deceit, and striving against mankind.

³³ Do ye, therefore, my children, keep the law of YAHUAHA, and give not heed unto evil as unto good; but look unto the thing that is really good, and keep it in all commandments of YAHUAHA, having your conversation therein, and resting therein.

³⁴ For the latter ends of men do show their righteousness or unrighteousness, when they meet the angels of YAHUAHA and of Satan.

³⁵ for when the soul departs troubled, it is tormented by the evil spirit which also it served in lusts and evil works.

³⁶ But if he is peaceful with joy he meets the angel of peace, and he leadeth him into eternal life.

³⁷ Become not, my children, as Cedom, which sinned against the angels of YAHUAHA, and perished forever.

³⁸ For I know that ye shall sin and be delivered into the hands of your enemies; and your land shall be made desolate, and your holy places destroyed, and ye shall be scattered unto the four corners of the earth.

³⁹ And ye shall be set at nought in the dispersion vanishing away as water.

⁴⁰ Until the Most-High shall visit the earth, coming Himself as man, with men eating and drinking, and breaking the head of the dragon in the water.

⁴¹ He shall save Yashar'el and all the Goyim, Elohiym speaking in the person of man.

⁴² Therefore do ye also, my children, tell these things to your children, that they disobey Him not.

⁴³ For I have known that ye shall assuredly be disobedient, and assuredly act unrighteous, not giving heed to the law of Elohiym, but to the commandments of men, being corrupted through wickedness.

⁴⁴ And therefore shall ye be scattered as Gad and Dan my brethren, and ye shall know not your lands, tribe, and tongue.

⁴⁵ But YAHUAHA will gather you together in faith through His tender mercy, and for the sake of Avraham, Yitschaq, and Ya'aqov.

⁴⁶ And when he had said these things unto them, he commanded them, saying: Bury me in Hebron.

⁴⁷ And he fell asleep and died at a good old age.

⁴⁸ And his sons did as he had commanded them, and they carried him up to Hebron, and buried him with his fathers.

The Testament of Yoceph

The Eleventh Son of Ya'aqov and Rachel.

Yoceph, the eleventh son of Ya'aqov and Rachel, the beautiful and beloved. His struggle against the Mitsrayim temptress.

1 THE copy of the Testament of Yoceph.

2 When he was about to die he called his sons and his brethren together, and said to them:

3 My brethren and my children, hearken to Yoceph the beloved of Yashar'el; give ear, my sons, unto your father.

4 I have seen in my life envy and death, yet I went not astray, but persevered in the truth--of YAHUAHA.

5 These my brethren hated me, but YAHUAHA loved me:

6 They wished to slay me, but the Elohiym of my fathers guarded me:

7 They let me down into a pit, and the Most-High brought me up again.

8 I was sold into slavery, and YAHUAHA of all made me free:

9 I was taken into captivity, and His strong hand succored me.

10 I was beset with hunger, and YAHUAHA Himself nourished me.

11 I was alone, and Elohiym comforted me:

12 I was sick, and YAHUAHA visited me.

13 I was in prison, and my Elohiym showed favor unto me;

14 In bonds, and He released me;

15 Slandered, and He pleaded my cause;

16 Bitterly spoken against by the Mitsrayimians, and He delivered me;

17 Envied by my fellow-slaves, and He exalted me.

18 And this chief captain of Pharaoh entrusted to me his house.

¹⁹ And I struggled against a shameless woman, urging me to transgress with her; but the Elohiym of Yashar'el my father delivered me from the burning flame.

²⁰ I was cast into prison, I was beaten, I was mocked; but YAHUAHA granted me to find mercy, in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

²¹ For YAHUAHA doth not forsake them that fear Him, neither in darkness, nor in bonds, nor in tribulations, nor in necessities.

²² For Elohiym is not put to shame as a man, nor as the son of man is he afraid, nor as one that is earth-born is He weak or affrighted.

²³ But in all those things doth He give protection, and in divers ways doth He comfort, though for a little space He departs to try the inclination of the soul.

²⁴ In ten temptations He showed me approved, and in all of them I endured; for endurance is a mighty charm, and patience giveth many good things.

²⁵ How often did the Mitsrayim woman threaten me with death!

²⁶ How often did she give me over to punishment, and then call me back and threaten me, and when I was unwilling to company with her, she said to me:

²⁷ Thou shalt be Adonai of me, and all that is in my house, if you wilt give thyself unto me, and you shalt be as our master.

²⁸ But I remembered the words of my father, and going into my chamber, I wept and prayed unto YAHUAHA.

²⁹ And I fasted in those seven years, and I appeared to the Mitsrayim as one living delicately, for they that fast for Elohiym's sake receive beauty of face.

³⁰ And if my Adonai were away from home, I drank no wine; nor for three days did I take my food, but I gave it to the poor and sick.

³¹ And I sought YAHUAHA early, and I wept for the Mitsrayim woman of Memphis, for very unceasingly did she trouble me, for also at night she came to me under pretense of visiting me.

³² And because she had no male child she pretended to regard me as a son.

³³ And for a time she embraced me as a son, and I knew it not; but later, she sought to draw me into fornication.

³⁴ And when I perceived it I sorrowed unto death; and when she had gone out, I came to myself, and lamented for her many days, because I recognized her guile and her deceit.

³⁵ And I declared unto her the words of the Most-High, if haply she would turn from her evil lust.

³⁶ Often, therefore, did she flatter me with words as a holy man, and guilefully in her talk praise my chastity before her husband, while desiring to ensnare me when we were alone.

³⁷ For she lauded me openly as chaste, and in secret she said unto me: Fear not my husband; for he is persuaded concerning thy chastity: for even should one tell him concerning us, he would not believe.

³⁸ Owing to all these things I lay upon the ground, and besought Elohiym that YAHAUAHA would deliver me from her deceit.

³⁹ And when she had prevailed nothing thereby, she came again to me under the plea of instruction, that she might learn the word of Elohiym.

⁴⁰ And she said unto me: If you will that I should leave my idols, lie with me, and I will persuade my husband to depart from his idols, and we will walk in the law by thy Adonai.

⁴¹ And I said unto her: YAHAUAHA will not. that those who reverence Him should be in uncleanness, nor doth He take pleasure in them that commit adultery, but in those that approach Him with a pure heart and undefiled lips.

⁴² But she heeded her peace, longing to accomplish her evil desire.

⁴³ And I gave myself yet more to fasting and prayer, that YAHAUAHA might deliver me from her.

⁴⁴ And again, at another time she said unto me: If you wilt not commit adultery, I will kill my husband by poison; and take thee to be my husband.

⁴⁵ I therefore, when I heard this, rent my garments, and said unto her:

⁴⁶ Woman, reverence Elohiym, and do not this evil deed, lest you be destroyed; for know indeed that I will declare this thy device unto all men.

⁴⁷ She therefore, being afraid, besought that I would not declare this device.

⁴⁸ And she departed soothing me with gifts and sending to me every delight of the sons of men.

⁴⁹ And afterwards she sent me food mingled with enchantments.

⁵⁰ And when the eunuch who brought it came, I looked up and beheld a terrible man giving me with the dish a sword, and I perceived that her scheme was to beguile me.

⁵¹ And when he had gone out, I wept, nor did I taste that or any other of her food.

⁵² So then after one day she came to me and observed the food, and said unto me: Why is it that you hast not eaten of the food?

⁵³ And I said unto her: It is because you hast filled it with deadly enchantments; and how said you: I come not near to idols but to YAHUAHA alone.

⁵⁴ Now therefore know that the Elohiym of my father hath revealed unto me by His angel thy wickedness, and I have kept it to convict thee, if haply you mayst see and repent.

⁵⁵ But that you mayst learn that the wickedness of the unrighteous hath no power over them that worship Elohiym with chastity behold I will take of it and eat before thee.

⁵⁶ And having so said, I prayed thus: The Elohiym of my fathers and the angel of Avraham, be with me; and ate.

⁵⁷ And when she saw this she fell upon her face at my feet, weeping; and I raised her up and admonished her.

⁵⁸ And she promised to do this iniquity no more.

⁵⁹ But her heart was still set upon evil, and she looked around how to ensnare me, and sighing deeply she became downcast, though she was not sick.

⁶⁰ And when her husband saw her, he said unto her: Why is thy countenance fallen?

⁶¹ And she said unto him: I have a pain at my heart, and the groanings of my spirit oppress me; and so he comforted her who was not sick.

⁶² Then, accordingly seizing an opportunity, she rushed unto me while her husband was yet without, and said unto me: I will hang myself, or cast myself over a cliff, if you wilt not lie with me.

⁶³ And when I saw the spirit of Beliar was troubling her, I prayed unto YAHUAHA, and said unto her:

⁶⁴ Why, wretched woman, are you troubled and disturbed, blinded through sins?

⁶⁵ Remember that if you kill thyself, Asteho, the concubine of thy husband, thy rival, will beat thy children, and you wilt destroy thy memorial from off the earth.

⁶⁶ And she said unto me: Lo, then you love me; let this suffice me: only strive for my life and my children, and I expect that I shall enjoy my desire also.

⁶⁷ But she knew not that because of my Adonai I spoke thus, and not because of her.

⁶⁸ For if a man hath fallen before the passion of a wicked desire and become enslaved by it, even as she, whatever good thing he may hear with regard to that passion, he receive it with a view to his wicked desire.

⁶⁹ I declare, therefore, unto you, my children, that it was about the sixth hour when she departed from me; and I knelt before YAHUAHA all day, and all the night; and about dawn I rose up, weeping the while and praying for a release from her.

⁷⁰ At last, then, she laid hold of my garments, forcibly dragging me to have connexion with her.

⁷¹ When, therefore, I saw that in her madness she was holding fast to my garment, I left it behind, and fled away naked.

⁷² And holding fast to the garment she falsely accused me, and when her husband came, he cast me into prison in his house; and on the morrow he scourged me and sent me into Pharaoh's prison.

⁷³ And when I was in bonds, the Mitsrayim woman was oppressed with grief, and she came and heard how I gave thanks unto YAHUAHA and sang praises in the abode of darkness, and with glad voice rejoiced, glorifying my Elohiym that I was delivered from the lustful desire of the Mitsrayim woman.

⁷⁴ And often hath she sent unto me saying: Consent to fulfil my desire, and I will release thee from thy bonds, and I will free thee from the darkness.

⁷⁵ And not even in thought did I incline unto her.

⁷⁶ For Elohiym loveth him who in a den of wickedness combines fasting with chastity, rather than the man who in kings' chambers combines luxury with license.

⁷⁷ And if a man live in chastity, and desire also glory, and the Most-High know that it is expedient for him, He bestow this also upon me.

⁷⁸ How often, though she were sick, did she come down to me at unlooked for times, and listened to my voice as I prayed!

⁷⁹ And when I heard her groanings I held my peace.

⁸⁰ For when I was in her house, she was wont to bare her arms, and breasts, and legs, that I might lie with her; for she was very beautiful, splendidly adorned in order to beguile me.

⁸¹ And YAHUAHA guarded me from her devices.

2 Ye see, therefore, my children, how great things patience worketh, and prayer with fasting.

² So ye too, if ye follow after chastity and purity with patience and prayer, with fasting in humility of heart, YAHUAHA will dwell among you because He loveth chastity.

³ And wheresoever the Most-High dwelleth, even though envy, or slavery, or slander befall a man, YAHUAHA who dwelleth in him, for the sake of his chastity not only deliver him from evil, but also exalt him even as me.

⁴ For in every way the man is lifted up, whether in deed, or in word, or in thought.

⁵ My brethren knew how my father loved me, and yet I did not exalt myself in my mind: although I was a child, I had the fear of Elohiym in my heart; for I knew that all things would pass away.

⁶ And I did not raise myself against them with evil intent, but I honored my brethren; and out of respect for them, even when I was being sold, I refrained from telling the Yishma'elites that I was a son of Ya'aqov, a great man and a mighty.

⁷ Do ye also, my children, have the fear of Elohiym in all your works before your eyes, and honor your brethren.

⁸ For everyone who does the Torah of YAHUAHA shall be loved by Him.

⁹ And when I came to the Indocolpitae with the Yishma'elites, they asked me, saying:

¹⁰ Art you a slave? And I said that I was a home-born slave, that I might not put my brethren to shame.

¹¹ And the eldest of them said unto me: Thou are not a slave, for even thy appearance doth make it manifest.

¹² But I said that I was their slave.

¹³ Now when we came into Mitsrayim, they strove concerning me, which of them should buy me and take me.

¹⁴ Therefore it seemed good to all that I should remain in Mitsrayim with the merchant of their trade, until they should return bringing merchandise.

¹⁵ And YAHUAHA gave me favor in the eyes of the merchant, and he entrusted unto me his house.

¹⁶ And Elohiym blessed him by my means and increased him in gold and silver and in household servants.

¹⁷ And I was with him three months and five days.

¹⁸ And about that time the Memphian woman, the wife of Pentephris came down in a chariot, with great pomp, because she had heard from her eunuchs concerning me.

¹⁹ And she told her husband that the merchant had become rich by means of a young Hebrew, and they say that he had assuredly been stolen out of the land of Canaan.

²⁰ Now, therefore, render justice unto him, and take away the youth to thy house; so shall the Elohiym of the Hebrews bless thee, for grace from heaven is upon him.

²¹ And Pentephris was persuaded by her words, and commanded the merchant to be brought, and said unto him:

²² What is this that I hear concerning thee, that you steal persons out of the land of Canaan, and sell them for slaves?

²³ But the merchant fell at his feet, and besought him, saying: I beseech thee, my Adonai, I know not what you sayest.

²⁴ And Pentephris said unto him: Whence, then, is the Hebrew slave?

²⁵ And he said: The Yishma'elites entrusted him unto me until they should return.

²⁶ But he believed him not but commanded him to be stripped and beaten.

²⁷ And when he persisted in this statement, Pentephris said: Let the youth be brought.

²⁸ And when I was brought in, I did obeisance to Pentephris for he was third in rank of the officers of Pharaoh.

²⁹ And he took me apart from him, and said unto me: Art you a slave or free?

³⁰ And I said: A slave.

³¹ And he said: Whose?

³² And I said: 'The Yishma'elites'.

³³ And he said: How didst you become their slave?

³⁴ And I said: They bought me out of the land of Canaan.

³⁵ And he said unto me: Truly you lie; and straightway he commanded me to be stripped and beaten.

³⁶ Now, the Memphian woman was looking through a window at me while I was being beaten, for her house was near, and she sent unto him saying:

³⁷ Thy judgement is unjust; for you dost punish a free man who hath been stolen, as though he were a transgressor.

³⁸ And when I made no change in my statement, though I was beaten, he ordered me to be imprisoned, until, he said, the owners of the boy should come.

³⁹ And the woman said unto her husband: Wherefore dost you detain the captive and wellborn lad in bonds, who ought rather to be set at liberty, and be waited upon?

⁴⁰ For she wished to see me out of a desire of sin, but I was ignorant concerning all these things.

⁴¹ And he said to her: It is not the custom of the Mitsrayim to take that which belongs to others before proof is given.

⁴² This, therefore, he said concerning the merchant; but as for the lad, he must be imprisoned.

⁴³ Now after four and twenty days came the Yishma'elites; for they had heard that Ya'aqov my father was mourning much concerning me.

⁴⁴ And they came and said unto me: How is it that you said that you was a slave? and lo, we have learnt that you are the son of a mighty man in the land of Canaan, and thy father still mourns for thee in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴⁵ When I heard this my bowels were dissolved and my heart melted, and I desired greatly to weep, but I restrained myself that I should not put my brethren to shame.

⁴⁶ And I said unto them, I know not, I am a slave.

⁴⁷ Then, therefore, they took counsel to sell me, that I should not be found in their hands.

⁴⁸ For they feared my father, lest he should come and execute upon them a grievous vengeance.

⁴⁹ For they had heard that he was mighty with Elohiym and with men.

⁵⁰ Then said the merchant unto them: Release me from the judgement of Pentiphri.

⁵¹ And they came and requested me, saying: Say that you was bought by us with money, and he will set us free.

⁵² Now the Memphian woman said to her husband: Buy the youth; for I hear, said she, that they are selling him.

⁵³ And straightway she sent a eunuch to the Yishma'elites and asked them to sell me.

⁵⁴ But since the eunuch would not agree to buy me at their price he returned, having made trial of them, and he made known to his mistress that they asked a large price for their slave.

⁵⁵ And she sent another eunuch, saying: Even though they demand two minas, give them, do not spare the gold; only buy the boy, and bring him to me.

⁵⁶ The eunuch therefore went and gave them eighty pieces of gold, and he received me; but to the Mitsrayim woman he said I have given a hundred.

⁵⁷ And though I knew this I held my peace, lest the eunuch should be put to shame.

⁵⁸ Ye see, therefore, my children, what great things I endured that I should not put my brethren to shame.

⁵⁹ Do ye also, therefore, love one another, and with long-suffering hide ye one another's faults.

⁶⁰ For Elohiym delight in the unity of brethren, and in the purpose of a heart that takes pleasure in love.

⁶¹ And when my brethren came into Mitsrayim they learnt that I had returned their money unto them, and upbraided them not, and comforted them.

⁶² And after the death of Ya'aqov my father I loved them more abundantly, and all things whatsoever he commanded I did very abundantly for them.

⁶³ And I suffered them not to be afflicted in the smallest matter; and all that was in my hand I gave unto them.

⁶⁴ And their children were my children, and my children as their servants; and their life was my life, and all their suffering was my suffering, and all their sickness was my infirmity.

⁶⁵ My land was their land, and their counsel my counsel.

⁶⁶ And I exalted not myself among them in arrogance because of my worldly glory, but I was among them as one of the least.

⁶⁷ If ye also, therefore, walk in the commandments of YAHUAHA, my children, He will exalt you there, and will bless you with good things forever and ever.

⁶⁸ And if anyone seek to do evil unto you, do well unto him, and pray for him, and ye shall be redeemed of YAHUAHA from all evil.

⁶⁹ For, behold, ye see that out of my humility and longsuffering I took unto wife the daughter of the priest of Heliopolis.

⁷⁰ And a hundred talents of gold were given me with her, and YAHUAHA made them to serve me.

⁷¹ And He gave me also beauty as a flower beyond the beautiful ones of Yashar'el; and He preserved me unto old age in strength and in beauty, because I was like in all things to Ya'aqov.

⁷² And hear ye, my children, also the vision which I saw.

⁷³ There were twelve harts feeding: and the nine were first dispersed over all the earth, and likewise also the three.

⁷⁴ And I saw that from Yahudah was born a virgin wearing a linen garment, and from her, was born a lamb, without spot; and on his left hand there was as it were a lion; and all the beasts rushed against him, and the lamb overcame them, and destroyed them and trod them under foot.

⁷⁵ And because of him the angels and men rejoiced, and all the land.

⁷⁶ And these things shall come to pass in their season, in the last days.

⁷⁸ For His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, which shall not pass away; but my kingdom among you shall come to an end as a watcher's hammock, which after the summer disappeared.

⁷⁹ For I know that after my death the Mitsrayim will afflict you, but Elohiym will avenge you, and will bring you into that which He promised to your fathers.

⁸⁰ But ye shall carry up my bones with you; for when my bones are being taken up thither, YAHUAHA shall be with you in light, and Beliar shall be in darkness with the Mitsrayimians.

⁸¹ And carry ye up Asenath your mother to the Hippodrome, and near Rachel your mother bury her.

⁸² And when he had said these things, he stretched out his feet, and died at a good old age.

⁸³ And all Yashar'el mourned for him, and all Mitsrayim, with a great mourning.

⁸⁴ And when the children of Yashar'el went out of Mitsrayim, they took with them the bones of Yoceph, and they buried him in Hebron with his fathers, and the years of his life were one hundred and ten years.

The Testament of Binyamiyn

The Twelfth Son of Ya'aqov and Rachel.

Binyamiyn, the twelfth son of Ya'aqov and Rachel, the baby of the family, turns philosopher and philanthropist.

1 The copy of the words of Binyamiyn, which he commanded his sons to observe, after he had lived a hundred and twenty-five years.

2 And he kissed them and said: As Yitschaq was born to Avraham in his old age, so also was I to Ya'aqov.

3 And since Rachel my mother died in giving me birth, I had no milk; therefore, I was suckled by Bilhah her handmaid.

4 For Rachel remained barren for twelve years after she had borne Yoceph; and she prayed YAHUAHA with fasting twelve days, and she conceived and bare Me.

5 For my father loved Rachel dearly and prayed that he might see two sons born from her.

6 Therefore was I called Binyamiyn, that is, a son of days.

7 And when I went into Mitsrayim, to Yoceph, and my brother recognized me, he said unto me: What did they tell my father when they sold me?

8 And I said unto him, They dabbled thy coat with blood and sent it, and said: Know whether this be thy son's coat.

9 And he said unto me: Even so, brother, when they had stripped me of my coat, they gave me to the Yishma'elites, and they gave me a loin cloth, and scourged me, and bade me run.

10 And as for one of them that had beaten me with a rod, a lion met him and slew him.

11 And so his associates were affrighted.

¹² Do ye also, therefore, my children, love YAHUAHA Elohiym of heaven and earth, and keep His commandments, following the example of the good and holy man Yoceph.

¹³ And let your mind be unto good, even as ye know me; for he that bath his mind right sees all things rightly.

¹⁴ Fear ye YAHUAHA and love your neighbor; and even though the spirits of Beliar claim you to afflict you with every evil, yet shall they not have dominion over you, even as they had not over Yoceph my brother.,

¹⁵ How many men wished to slay him, and Elohiym shielded him!

¹⁶ For he that fears Elohiym and loveth his neighbor cannot be smitten by the spirit of Beliar, being shielded by the fear of Elohiym.

¹⁷ Nor can he be ruled over by the device of men or beasts, for he is helped by YAHUAHA through the love which he hath towards his neighbor.

¹⁸ For Yoceph also besought our father that he would pray for his brethren, that YAHUAHA would not impute to them as sin whatever evil they had done unto him.

¹⁹ And thus Ya'aqov cried out: My good child, you hast prevailed over the bowels of thy father Ya'aqov.

²⁰ And he embraced him, and kissed him for two hours, saying:

²¹ In thee shall be fulfilled the prophecy of heaven concerning the Lamb of Elohiym, and Savior of the world, and that a blameless one shall be delivered up for lawless men, and a sinless one shall die for unrighteous men in the blood of the covenant, for the salvation of the Goyim and of Yashar'el, and shall destroy Beliar and his servants.

²² See ye, therefore, my children, the end of the good man?

²³ Be followers of his compassion, therefore, with a good mind, that ye also may wear crowns of glory.

²⁴ For the good man hath not a dark eye; for he shows mercy to all men, even though they be sinners.

²⁵ And though they devise with evil intent. concerning him, by doing good he overcomes evil, being shielded by Elohiym; and he loveth the righteous as his own soul.

²⁶ If anyone is glorified, he envies him not; if anyone is enriched, he is not jealous; if anyone is valiant, he praises him; the virtuous man he lauds; on the poor man he hath mercy; on the weak he hath compassion; unto Elohiym he sings praises.

²⁷ And him that hath the grace of a good spirit he loveth as his own soul.

²⁸ If therefore, ye also have a good mind, then will both wicked men be at peace with you, and the profligate will reverence you and turn unto good; and the covetous will not only cease from their inordinate desire, but even give the objects of their covetousness to them that are afflicted.

²⁹ If ye do well, even the unclean spirits will flee from you; and the beasts will dread you.

³⁰ For where there is reverence for good works and light in the mind, even darkness flees away from him.

³¹ For if anyone does violence to a holy man, he repenteth; for the holy man is merciful to his reviler, and holds his peace.

³² And if anyone betrays a righteous man, the righteous man prays: though for a little he be humbled, yet not long after he appears far more glorious, as was Yoceph my brother.

³³ The inclination of the good man is not in the power of the deceit of the spirit of Beliar, for the angel of peace guides his soul.

³⁴ And he gazes not passionately upon corruptible things, nor gathers together riches through a desire of pleasure.

³⁵ He delights not in pleasure, he grieves not his neighbor, he sated not himself with luxuries, he errs not in the uplifting of the eyes, for YAHUAHA is his portion.

³⁶ The good inclination receives not glory nor dishonor from men, and it knows not any guile, or lie, or fighting or reviling; for YAHUAHA dwelleth in him and lights up his soul, and he rejoices towards all men always.

³⁷ The good mind hath not two tongues, of blessing and of cursing, of contumely and of honor, of sorrow and of joy, of quietness and of confusion, of hypocrisy and of truth, of poverty and of wealth; but it hath one disposition, uncorrupt and pure, concerning all men.

³⁸ It hath no double sight, nor double hearing; for in everything which he doeth, or speaks, or sees, he knows that YAHUAHA looks on his soul.

³⁹ And he cleanses his mind that he may not be condemned by men as well as by Elohiym.

⁴⁰ And in like manner the works of Beliar are twofold, and there is no singleness in them.

⁴¹ Therefore, my children, I tell you, flee the malice of Beliar; for he giveth a sword to them that obey him.

⁴² And the sword is the mother of seven evils. First the mind conceives through Beliar, and first there is bloodshed; secondly ruin; thirdly, tribulation; fourthly, exile; fifthly, dearth; sixthly, panic; seventhly, destruction.

⁴³ Therefore Qayin was also delivered over to seven vengeance by Elohiym, for in every hundred years YAHUAHA brought one plague upon him.

⁴⁴ And when he was two hundred years old, he began to suffer, and in the nine-hundredth year he was destroyed.

⁴⁵ For on account of Abel, his brother, with -all the evils was he judged, but Lemek with seventy times seven.

⁴⁶ Because forever those who are like Qayin in envy and hatred of brethren, shall be punished with the same judgement.

2 And do ye, my children, flee evil-doing, envy, and hatred of brethren, and cleave to goodness and love.

² He that hath a pure mind in love, looks not after a woman with a view to fornication; for he hath no defilement in his heart, because the Spirit of Elohiym rests upon him.

³ For as the sun is not defiled by shining on dung and mire, but rather dries up both and drives away the evil smell; so also the pure mind, though encompassed by the defilements of earth, rather cleans them and is not itself defiled.

⁴ And I believe that there will be also evil doings among you, from the words of Chanok the righteous: that ye shall commit fornication with the fornication of Cedom, and shall perish, all save a few, and shall renew wanton deeds with women; and the kingdom of YAHUAHA shall not be among you, for straightway He shall take it away.

⁵ Nevertheless the temple of Elohiym shall be in your portion, and the last temple shall be more glorious than the first.

⁶ And the twelve tribes shall be gathered together there, and all the Goyim, until the Most-High shall send forth His salvation in the visitation of an only begotten prophet.

⁷ And He shall enter into the first temple, and there shall YAHUAHA be treated with outrage, and He shall be lifted up upon a tree.

⁸ And the veil of the temple shall be rent, and the Ruach of Elohiym shall pass on to the Goyim as fire poured forth.

⁹ And He shall ascend from Hades and shall pass from earth into heaven.

¹⁰ And I know how lowly He shall be upon earth, and how glorious in heaven.

¹¹ Now when Yoceph was in Mitsrayim, I longed to see his figure and the form of his countenance; and through the prayers of Ya'aqov my father I saw him, while awake in the daytime, even his entire figure exactly as he was.

¹² And when he had said these things, he said unto them: Know ye, therefore, my children, that I am dying.

¹³ Do ye, therefore, truth each one to his neighbor, and keep the law of YAHUAHA and His commandments.

¹⁴ For these things do I leave you instead of inheritance.

¹⁵ Do ye also, therefore, give them to your children for an everlasting possession; for so did both Avraham, and Yitschaq, and Ya'aqov.

¹⁶ For all these things they gave us for an inheritance, saying: Keep the commandments of Elohiym, until YAHUAHA shall reveal His salvation to all Goyim.

¹⁷ And then shall ye see Chanok, Noach, and Shem, and Avraham, and Yitschaq, and Ya'aqov, rising on the right hand in gladness, ¹⁸ Then shall we also rise, each one over our tribe, worshipping the King of heaven, who appeared upon earth in the form of a man in humility.

¹⁹ And as many as believe on Him on the earth shall rejoice with Him.

- ²⁰ Then also all men shall rise, some unto glory and some unto shame.
- ²¹ And YAHAUAHA shall judge Yashar'el first, for their unrighteousness; for when He appeared as Elohiym in the flesh to deliver them they believed Him not.
- ²² And then shall He judge all the Goyim, as many as believed Him not when He appeared upon earth.
- ²³ And He shall convict Yashar'el through the chosen ones of the Goyim, even as He reprov'd Esau through the Midianites, who deceived their brethren, so that they fell into fornication, and idolatry; and they were alienated from Elohiym, becoming therefore children in the portion of them that fear YAHAUAHA.
- ²⁴ If ye therefore, my children, walk in holiness according to the commandments of YAHAUAHA, ye shall again dwell securely with me, and all Yashar'el shall be gathered unto YAHAUAHA.
- ²⁵ And I shall no longer be called a ravening wolf on account of your ravages, but a worker of YAHAUAHA distributing food to them that work what is good.
- ²⁶ And there shall arise in the latter days one beloved of YAHAUAHA, of the tribe of Yahudah and Leviy, a doer of His good pleasure in his mouth, with new knowledge enlightening the Goyim.
- ²⁷ Until the consummation of the age shall he be in the synagogues of the Goyim, and among their rulers, as a strain of music in the mouth of all.
- ²⁸ And he shall be inscribed in the holy books, both his work and his word, and he shall be a chosen one of Elohiym forever.
- ²⁹ And through them he shall go to and fro as Ya'aqov my father, saying: He shall fill up that which lacks thy tribe.
- ³⁰ And when he had said these things, he stretched out his feet.
- ³¹ And died in a beautiful and good sleep.
- ³² And his sons did as he had enjoined them, and they took up his body and buried it in Hebron with his fathers.
- ³³ And the number of the days of his life was a hundred and twenty-five years.
